1. General Spacy advised in verbal conference that he desires the services of Colonel Hume as soon as possible after "D" day for II operation.
2. It is not feasible to move him now and the attempt to do so might unduly compromise the security of the operation. Soon after "D" day, however, it should be possible to move him by surface craft or submarine.
3. Subject to your approval no action will be initiated on this matter until the military situation will safely permit transfer of officers by arrangement with the C.A., 12th Military District.

SUBJECT: Assignment of Personnel.

TO : Commander in Chief, GHQ, APO 500.
THROUGH: Commanding General, Sixth Army, APO 442.
Commanding General, USASOS, APO 307.

1. It is requested that Lt. Col. Marcisco L. Mansano, O-14790, CE (Philippine Scouts), United States Army, now in Mindanao, P.I., be assigned to Army Service Command and that instructions be issued to him to proceed to Leyte, at such date as may be indicated by GHQ consistent with security measures.

2. Lt. Col. Mansano served as my Executive Officer on Bataan. He is a highly experienced engineer officer and is particularly well qualified to supervise construction activities of large native labor forces, having performed that mission for me during the Philippine Campaign.

3. Large numbers of native labor will be employed in Leyte and subsequently on Luzon. Lt. Col. Mansano is considered particularly well qualified for this important assignment.

Disc 13

FRS

Chief of Staff

24 May 1944

1. Attached message recommends that Lieut. Colonel Narcisco L. MANZANO be promoted to the grade of Colonel.
2. MANZANO arrived at FERTIG's headquarters on 18 March. He submitted an interesting report on general conditions in Central LUZON but nothing of any great value from an intelligence standpoint. (Fertig's messages 795-799). He was sent to MINDANAO, presumably for ultimate dispatch to this headquarters, by "ROKAS AND GENERAL LIN, WHO WAS NAMED BY ROKAS TO UNIFY GUERRILLAS IN LUZON." (Fertig message 796).
3. I believed that Colonel MANZANO could most profitably be employed on FERTIG's staff in charge of intelligence, particularly in the DAVAO area where we are very weak. My views, however, were over-ruled by approval of a G-2 recommendation (G-2 C/N of 27 March) that MANZANO be appointed to "direct procurement of intelligence and extension of intelligence net in LUZON." He was so appointed but to this date has made no move to undertake the responsibilities of that appointment presumably because we have not thus far indicated the manner in which he was to do it.
4. FERTIG believes that MANZANO should remain in "10th M.D. OR BOHOL, SINCE HE CANNOT RETURN TO LUZON SINCE WHOLESALE ARRESTS" (Fertig message 796). Yet MINDANAO or BOHOL is as far removed from LUZON, to all intents and purposes, as is this headquarters. The most effective place from which to "direct procurement of intelligence and extension of intelligence net in LUZON" is in LUZON itself. We have had to heretofore maintain our leaders (SMITH and PHILLIPS) at points adjacent to LUZON because of the impossibility of their assimilation among the Filipino people but such difficulty does not exist in the case of Colonel MANZANO.
5. G-2 has commented on this point: "To actively take over LUZON work will require MANZANO to be closer to LUZON (possibly PANAY or NEGROS)." (G-2 note to FRS 12 April). I believe, however, that for such purpose there would be little distinction between the VISAYAS and MINDANAO. He would, in either case, be too far removed from LUZON to do an effective job inside of LUZON.
6. In support of his recommendation of promotion for MANZANO Fertig states "HIS SERVICES IN MANILA AND WITH ME HAVE BEEN INVALUABLE" (message attached). While MANZANO is recognized as a splendid officer (General Casey) prior to the surrender we have no evidence to disclose the nature of his service since the surrender nor the manner in which he obtained his release as a POW if he fell into that category which presumably he did.

7. I recommend:

- (a) That the promotion of this officer be held in abeyance pending the availability of information concerning his post surrender activity and service and the opportunity to accurately appraise the same. (Policy in this matter should be shaped to the realization that in the post re-occupation era claims to distinguished services in the post surrender period will spring up like mushrooms from every corner of the Philippines. Hastily conceived precedent is therefore to be carefully avoided); and
- (b) That as Colonel MANZANO is to direct the procurement of intelligence in LUZON he should be ordered to LUZON for that purpose, under a plan that has reasonable chance for success; or if this headquarters is unable to devise such a plan (and none was included in the G-2 recommendation for appointment) he should be directed to submit such a plan for the consideration of this headquarters. (It is now many weeks since Colonel MANZANO was given his appointment and yet, as far as is known, no action whatsoever has been taken toward the discharge of the responsibilities incident thereto. The campaign is moving too swiftly to permit of delay in such vital matters).
