1. Argentinian.

Media shld report disturbances in Buenos Aires in connection with "La Prensa" Newspaper strike factually and moderately, without comment.

2. War criminals.

Department confirmed today (2/27) Supreme Court request for stay of execution death sentences 7 German war criminals to give their counsel opportunity to apply for "writ of certificate." McCloy and Handy have been instructed accordingly. It is understood counsel will be allowed 30 days to apply for writ, which, if issued, will bring case before Supreme Court. As opportunity offers, media shld point out this further stay of sentence is strictly procedural and in accordance with traditions of Anglo Saxon Law. It shld be noted that this action does not substantively alter decisions made.

3. "Peace Council."

Pending further clarification and guidance, media shld avoid speculation and comments on proposal of Communist sponsored "World Peace Council" at recent Berlin meeting to send delegation to UN "to demand the UN return to its original purpose of preserving the peace."

FONOFF has handed emb aide memoire in reply to our representation on need for increased Jap participation in internatl relationships (Depts A-586 Oct 19 and EMBTEL 2835 Nov 15). Substance of aide memoire is as follows:

1. MFN treatment for Japan. Brit Govt is now giving same treatment to Jap trade as to trade of GATT members. Only restrictions on Jap imports at present are imposed on balance of payments grounds. Jap recovery is important to relieve burden of US taxpayer and to enable Jap to make contribution to econ development in S and SE Asia. Brit Govt is concerned about "unique phenomenon" of Jap competition which has caused serious difficulties for UK in past. Brit Govt cannot enter into any formal commitment to grant MFN to Jap but will continue to accord to Jap trade actually MFN treatment.
2. Jap trade representatives. Brit Govt will accept Jap overseas reps in UK. It will not be possible for some time to accept them in Brit colonial territories which were occupied by Jap during war, Malaya, H Kong, etc, because of hostile local feeling (position with respect to their colonies unclear and we have reqstd clarification).
3. Internatl conferences and organizations. Brit will in pre-peace treaty period welcome participation of Jap in internatl conferences and organizations on technical character as observer without right to vote. They will also examine possibility of Jap participation in such conferences and organizations as full membership relevant to body in question. As exception to above principle Brit will not agree to Jap participation in GATT even as non-voting observer.

Johnstun, Head Japan and Pacific Section FONOFF, has informed EMBOFF as follows:

1. Having briefed Comwlth PRIMINS in Jan on UK views on question Jap Peace Treaty, FONOFF has passed on to Comwlths substance Dulles-Gascoyne discussions in Tokyo. FONOFF is now attempting put its recent thinking on paper from informal communication to Dept thru Brit Emb. It will be stated these views represent thinking of UK only and not necessarily those of other Comwlths.

2. FONOFF remains strongly in favor multilateral treaty and is attempting work out formula which wld postpone indefinitely decision as to what govt wld represent China. with this in mind it is now drafting an "accession clause" which wld be to effect that as signatories not in agrmt as to who shld represent China accession of China to treaty shld be delayed until this question is decided among other signatories. Similarly, another clause sld recognize that Japan cedes Formosa to China but the interpretation of manner it wld be ceded and identity of Govt to acquire Formosa wld have to await later developments.

3. FONOFF much impressed by Dulles suggestion that US-UK bickering over China question shld not be permitted color negotiations over Jap Peace Treaty and present thinking as indicated in immediately preceding Para is motivated by serious attempt meet Dulles half way. Signed Gifford".

1. Morocco: Media should report political situation in French Morocco factually, with strict attribution to sources, avoiding obviously irresponsible reports. Above all, Media should avoid stories or comment that might even remotely suggest that US is taking sides.

2. Stikker: Media should give good play to current visit of Netherlands Foreign Minister Dirk U Stikker, who as Chairman of OEEC is in Washington conferring with officials on Western Europe's need for raw materials. Media should not give indication that he will engage in any US-Dutch discussions, but should emphasize that he is here as Representative of OEEC. Where appropriate, Media should mention that he is accompanied by Robert Marjokin of France, who is Secretary-General of OEEC. Begins FYI: Objective of department is to increase Stikker's international standing. Ends FYI.

3. German assets: Media should give minimum factual coverage to upcoming Quadripartite meeting in Berne, Switzerland, re disposition of German assets. Speculation on who will get how much of such assets should be avoided.

4. Reynaud: Media should give only minimum play to any meeting between President Truman and Former French Premier Paul Reynaud, if and when such meeting occurs.

Overnight Information Policy Guidance Nbr 656 Feb 22, 5 PM.

1. Slave Labor: US action barring imports of Soviet canned crabmeat as being produced by "Forced Labor", and possibility Soviets may in rebuttal charge US at ECOSOC meeting Santiago, Chile (see Overnight Nbr 653 of Feb 19), with "Depressing living standards" throughout world, give "slave labor" issue added importance. For media's background information, under Section 307 of 1930 Tariff Act commodities produced by forced or indentured labor are barred from entry into US. For application of Section 307, evidence sufficient to have validity in US courts is required to prohibit importation of any foreign product against which forced labor charges are made.

Re crabmeat, US Govt considered proof of "forced labor" to be adequate and banned further imports. This action does not imply that other Soviet products are also made by "forced labor" or will shortly be banned from US entry. Media should not infer or speculate re application of Section 307 to other products, confining comment to specific and official US actions, if and when they develop. Loose or ill considered use of terms "forced labor" or "slave labor" might well convey idea that prevailing conditions in USSR justify invoking Section 307 against all USSR exports to US, an attitude which media should not promote directly or indirectly.

Generally but especially in output to Soviet orbit, media should employ term "slave labor" in a specific and qualified way only where its propaganda use runs no risk of placing US in any embarrassing legal position of having to produce clear, incontrovertible proof. If utilized carefully, "slave labor" line can serve to highlight Communist denial of human rights. Media should exploit worker domination and regimentation in Communist countries whereby worker's way of life is highly controlled to exclusive interests of Communist regime.

Commie theme probably emerging fr debate on annual world econ report may be assertion that unprovoked, imperialistic US rearmament program will reduce standard of living drastically, imperil hard won gains of workers everywhere, make econ progress impossible. On such issues, US del will take hard positive line in order keep Commies on defensive; our treatment shld fol and support US actions rather than seek to anticipate Sov charges. Emphasize role UN as internatl mechanism for advancement human welfare. As session progresses, forced labor may become focal issue for introduction by US of hard factual charges against USSR, and spellout of US and free nations record in promotion human rights. As Sov and Sov-inspired tactics at ECOSOC become apparent, they shld be exposed as further clear demonstrations Kremlin's actual attitude toward free peoples security and welfare.

1. Kashmir

UN Security Council will begin yet another attempt settle Kashmir question with introduction new US-UK joint draft resolution tomorrow 2/21.

In reporting and selecting, originating comment, media shld be guided by following lines thinking:

A. SC cannot allow settlement this dispute which has threatened peace South Asia for 3 years to go by default, which wld simply freeze present status, with each party holding territory on its own side present "ceasefire" line. This wld leave continued explosive irritant to Pakistan-India relations, and evade Council's responsibility for maintenance International Peace.

B. Although we carefully maintain attitude of impartiality as regards terms of settlement itself, where question arise of responsibility for long delay in reaching settlement, we recognize this delay largely due Indian intransigence, pointing out essential facts Pakistan acceptance Indian rejection previous proposals.

C. US policy looks towards quick settlement of dispute on reasonable terms to end present strain on relations, drain on resources both countries threatening stability South Asia.

D. Emphasize desirability of free Plebiscite under UN auspices to allow peoples concerned determine their own future.

E. US wld deplore any move by either side to settle issue by unilateral action; eg as suggested resolution Kashmir National Conference Oct 1950, which Indian govt has endorsed.

Overnight Info Policy Guidance No 653,
For INP IBD and occupied areas.

1. CFM: Text joint US-UK-French note on CFM, delivered Moscow today 2/19, expected be released 1915 est 2/20. Media should take release as peg to initiate continuing vigorous, hard hitting review of whole series of Soviet engendered issues at root of present international tensions which USSR has attempted to obscure in its 3 notes championing meeting of CFM restricted solely to discussion German demilitarization.

Over all tone this review should reflect following thinking: Since Soviets have consistently attempted put Western powers on defensive by charging them with responsibility for remilitarization of Germany and for aggressive rearmament in US, it is particularly important that we avoid any defensive or argumentative tone in our presentation of causes of world tension. We are not submitting a brief for the defense--on contrary, we take attitude we are the plaintiffs in case, and our record stands for itself. What should emerge from our review is that US UK and France have initiated long series constructive proposals in all major area friction which add up to coherent, reasonable program for improving international relations and advancing cause of peace. In contrast, USSR has steadfastly pursued an obstructionist and reactionary policy based on deception, aggression and suppression of freedom. Positive, nature US UK and French policy for "peace freedom justice" should be our primary point of emphasis.

In building up our propaganda campaign, it is obviously undesirable to "tip our hand" with respect to detailed lines our approach to possible 4 power meeting or give away our tactical plans.

Bearing this in mind, media should avoid indicating that any or all of topics for review suggested below will necessarily be on final agenda, treating them rather as issues in total area of conflict than as specific subjects for 4 power discussions.

With those reservations, here are major talking points for campaign (not listed in any particular order of precedence):

- (A) Disparity between Soviet and western armaments;
- (B) Tensions in Balkans and SE Europe;
- (C) Austrian treaty;
- (D) Germany problem as whole;
- (E) Soviet obstruction in UN;
- (F) "Freedom of information."

Comprehensive guidance on info policy approach to CFM and detailed discussion above topics will be given in special guidance upcoming shortly.

2. Berlin: Forthcoming "World Peace Council" meeting Berlin (2/21-2/24) promises be major effort in Soviet "peace" campaign. Recent indications are main themes meeting will be peaceful settlement German, Japanese issues and opposition to rearmament in both those countries. Council, in preparation, has endorsed proposals for peace plebiscites and anti rearmament plebiscites in W Germany and Japan.

In treatment Media should:

(A) Follow generally treatment outlined Special Guidance No. 66 of 11/15/50;

(B) Stress absurdity of peace movement originating with same people who condone, endorse aggression in Korea;

(C) Use contrasting statements to show falsity Soviet claim of peaceful intentions versus actual attempt to intimidate free people everywhere through fear and military threats;

(D) Emphasize US efforts to further peaceful conditions through support of UN, limitations of conventional and atomic armament and real guarantees for safeguarding human rights and security, freedom of peoples;

(E) Counter any suggestions for plebiscite in Western Germany by recalling standing Western demand for free, secret elections in Soviet Zone, referring to recent Adenauer statements and HICOM letter to Chuikov, 6/10/50.

Caution: In line with Special Overnight Info Policy Guidance of 2/17 on Stalin Pravda interview, Media should not carry speculation or comment suggesting Soviet may be building up "World Peace Council" as ready made alternative organization should Moscow decide withdraw iron curtain countries fr UN.

3. Soviet armed forces: In refuting Stalin's claims re Soviet demobilization, Media may use as official US estimates figure given in rpt prepared for use of Joint Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees: "The total str of the Soviet armed forces is estimated to be over four million organized into about 175 divs. Soviet satellites, excluding Communist China, have an additional 1 million men under arms."

(FYI begins: As of Dec 50, according to same rpt, about 2,300,000 men were under arms in ground forces of US and NATO countries, while total armed forces were about 4,500,000. In addition, about 2,700,000 are in organized reserves of those countries. At that time, it was estimated that US had 15 men per 1000 of population under arms; France 17, UK 14; Belgium 12; and the Netherlands 11. Ends FYI).

4. ECOSOC: 12th session convening Santiago Chile 2/21, may be scene of major Communist propoganda atk against US, free world cooperation, hemisphere unity. Debate on annual world economic rpt will likely bring out central Communist theme that imperialistic, unprovoked US rearmament program will drastically reduce living standards, prohibit economic progress, and prejudice painfully won gains of workers everywhere.

US delegation will take positive hard line on such issues in effort to keep Soviets on defensive. Assuming US tactics within ECOSOC are successful, our treatment should follow, support US actions rather than anticipate Soviet charges. In particular US should utilize fully as possible actions, statement's other delegations, to avoid appearance of simply US vs USSR conflict. As antidote to Stalin's charge of "Latin satellites", we should not rely too heavily on supporting material fr Latin delegations, except in Latin output.

As session progresses, forced labor may become a focal point for introduction of hard fact charges by US against USSR, along with spell out of record of US and free nations in promoting human rights. As they emerge, Soviet and Soviet inspired tactics at ECOSOC should be portrayed as further clear proof of Kremlin's actual intent against welfare, security of free peoples. We play up role of UN as useful,

At end of interviews Weisman said in view Con Gen attitude he was now decided to drop further efforts to keep Yung Hwo out of Chi Commie hands, and that if vessel now suffers mishap, will not be his responsibility.

Pls instruct whether any part of above should be communicated local police to forestall possible later irresponsible charges Con Gen complicity prospective illegal action by Natl agents with respect to vessel. Hong Kong Govt already aware thru conversation of Con Gen with Governor Feb 12 our keen interest in keeping vessel out of Chi Commie hands. Governor agreed that acquisition this tanker by Chi Commies would be disaster for US and said he would seek advice from Atty Gen as to whether sailing to Chi Commie port might legally be prevented. It is believed he would not be averse to interception of tanker by Natls on high seas, but of course he could not condone illegal seizure by Natl agents within Hong Kong Harbor.

Weisman claimed he has "1 man on board" (presumably crew member or dockworker) to report plans of Commies to effect departure. States latest scheme is to leave for Canton between Feb 26 and 28; that additional fuel supplied recently. (Con Gen checking whether port officials authorized fuel in addition to 30 tons provided earlier for engine trials in harbor. Special Overnight Information Policy Guidance Feb 17, 7 PM.

Stalin: Overall tone of comment on Stalin Pravda interview (2/16) shld be one of calmness, steadiness, showing we are not allowing ourselves to be unduly disturbed. Treatment shld avoid any display of US alarm and any alarm abroad. Therefore do not characterize interview as effort to intimidate or divide the West, as opening move in 'war of nerves'. Similarly we avoid speculation that statement may be preliminary to Soviet withdrawal from UN or is preparatory justification for new Soviet move increasing general war risk.

Following are suggested themes for original and selected comment:

"(A) 'Defensive' character Stalin statement reflects awareness of increasing weakness internal and external Soviet position; i.e., Failure of 'peace offensive' to soften up Western unsteadiness satellite regimes such as Czechoslovakia; failure of demonstrations against Eisenhower; Italian CP defections;

"(B) Above has forced Stalin make this dramatic effort to re-establish slipping Moscow control;

"(C) With discretion, interpret statement as indication of Kremlin worry re Soviet internal public opinion;

"(D) In light of past Soviet lies, world requires deeds, not words, as evidence Soviet peaceful intent, e.g., De Gasperi comment Stalin's statement wld be more reassuring 'if Russia wld demonstrate with facts contributing to a true peace;"

"(E) Tone of Stalin's references to UN may be attributed to frustration of Communist schemes to achieve quick, cheap aggradizement of Soviet Power in east, thwarted by firm UN resistance to aggression;

"(F) Support anything Brit may say in reply to Stalin's attack upon Attlee and exposing falsity of Stalin's claims re soviet demobilization.

"Caution: Note that Brit note to Soviet released tonight (2/17) is not direct reply to Stalin, but is answer to previous Soviet charge UK violating Anglo-Soviet Treaty. It shld be given good play, however, as further evidence Western Nations remain undeceived by Soviet tactic."

For INP, IED and Occupied Areas.

1. Communist schism. Whenever possible media shld avoid use of descriptions "Titoist" or "Titoism" in reporting or commenting upon such internal schisms within local communist party ranks as are now occurring in Italy. "Titoism" shld be used only to refer to split between a National Communist party and Moscow-controlled "International Communism." What is happening in Italy appears to be rather defection of individual members from a national party, resulting from conflict of conscience in individuals between "love of country" and party-line "subservience to Moscow." We can emphasize this best by simply describing individuals as "defectors" and movement generally as "patriotic defectionism" (not "deviationism," please). Media shld also avoid creating any impression of US endorsement of any particular defectors, or any particular brand of defection, as this wld be more likely to discourage than to encourage its growth.

2. Acheson Secretary's Statement before Senate Committees (2/16) complements and reinforces Marshall's testimony (Overnight 651 of 2/15). Media shld play up Secretary's rejection of neutralism and hemispherism; declaration that we proceed under protective shield of present advantage in retaliatory air power to build the balance collective forces in Western Europe to deter aggression; conviction that our allies will bear their full share of European defense burden.

Overnight Info Policy Guidance 651.

For INF, IBD and occupied areas:

1. "Troops for Europe": Marshall's testimony to Senate Committees this morning (2/15) obviously constitutes most important US policy statement which shld be given widest play. Following are quotes or points made which suggest themselves for emphasis or development in subsequent original or selected comment.

A. "We are not building up these stronger forces for any aggressive purpose but in order enable US defend ourselves if we shld be attacked". Our aim is "primarily to deter aggression if that be possible--and to defeat aggression if in spite of all our efforts, actions of Soviet Union or its Satellites shld precipitate another world war".

B. Maintenance US Forces in Europe will be "significant of our purposes, our intention, our will, to do what we properly can to strengthen Western Europe against atk and to deter that atk;

C. While 6 Divs may seem "arithmetically small" in nbrs, "proportionately, American contribution will be greater in air and Naval forces than in grd forces, for greater str of US is in air and on sea. Proportionately, also, our contribution will be greater in production of munitions than in provision of man-power".

D. "No, sir, I do not" ("You do not think it is a hopeless task to defend Western Europe against aggression").

Cautions: We shld leave aside for time being all questions of eventual attitude toward Marshall proposal, steering clear of controversy over congressional authority to approve or disapprove sending of troops abroad or of President's prerogative to do so. Media shld avoid all speculation or comment which raises those questions. In other words we play Marshall's testimony for what it was, a statement of administration policy, reporting straight ensuing developments in committee hearings and subsequent Senate debate. Media shld also avoid speculation on ratios or percentages these 6 Divs will represent of total planned NATO grd forces, and speculation on rate of build up of US forces in Europe from present 2 to projected 6 divisions. Note Marshall's careful phrase "in the present emergency" and use it to cover all questions of duration.

2. European Army: In reporting current Paris discussions on "Pleven Plan" for European Army, where opportunity offers media should remind audiences of US position as set out Acheson letter to Schuman 1/27 (Dept press release 87 of 2/5)-especially phrases: "If European countries can work it (European integration) out in a practical manner, a sound basis would be laid upon which military and economic str can be built"; and "we know you also agree with US that it is of primary importance to press fwd vigorously with strengthening of North Atlantic Treaty Organization". In other words, tests by which US will judge any specific plan which may emerge from these discussions will be:

- A. Is it militarily practical and sound?
- B. Will it promote building of North Atlantic defense strength?

1. Schuman Plan.

If and when Schuman Plan is "initialed" by representatives six participating govts, Media shld give good coverage as means indicating US welcome this major first step in achieving agreement. But Media shld note this is only first step-ratification by four out of six national parliaments is required before plan becomes operative-and exercise caution in treatment accordingly.

Following lines are suggested for emphasis in subsequent original or selected comment:

A. US applauds this European initiative (with emphasis on France's part) which has resulted in concrete steps towards closer European cooperation and unity.

B. Properly implemented, plan shld help eliminate one of traditional sources conflict between France and Germany.

C. Among long term benefits, plan, if properly implemented, shld result in greater production based upon improved methods and lower prices with bettered labor conditions.

D. US particularly approves anti scarcity character of plan as presently projected and fact it is designed protect industries covered by it from domination by restrictive arrangements which characterized them between World Wars I and II.

Cautions:

Media shld avoid over optimistic forecasting of future progress or appearance US making any credit for plans development. Also avoid labeling it as demonstration of "Progressive Capitalism" and "enlightened Capitalism" of "free enterprise", describing it rather as comm of-sense collaboration to secure mutual economic advantage. Nor should comment suggest plan is linked to problem of European rearmament or that this problem was primary motivation in its development.

2. Italy

There are signs that press campaign in Italy designed to put pressure on allies for revision Italian peace treaty, especially those clauses limiting armed forces and armament industries, may be in making. If this campaign develops, Media shld confine themselves to minimum of factual reporting, avoiding integrative comment.

Where opportunity offers in other connections, Media might point out Italy's full acceptance of basic equality in many international organizations and in particular important role Italy already playing in nato. Also stress that only reason Italy not full member UN is Soviet veto.

3. European Army.

Media shld give only straight news coverage to upcoming discussions Paris of "Pleven Plan" for European Army, avoiding any comment or speculation suggesting US has taken any firm position either of approving or disapproving it.

4. Burma.

Seagrave appeal against treason conviction began Rangoon 2/13-decision expected early next week. Meanwhile follow previous guidances.

5. Latin America.

Media serving Latin American area shld give minimum essential coverage to projected grant of good grain to India.

6. OAS.

Media shld not carry any reports of plans to have President Auriol of France address meeting of OAS Foreign Ministers in advance of official announcement (FYI begins: Probable that invitations will be issued with formal approval of meeting after it has convened Washington 2/26. Ends FYI).

Following is summary of report supplied FONOFF by UK Liaison Mission Tokyo on situation in Japan in light of Amb Dulles visit:

1. Japs uppity and confident. They feel US, frightened by events Korea and impressed with Jap efforts toward recovery, is safe bet and ready give Japan everything it wants.
2. Following are contributing factors to Jap optimism:
 - A. Recent UN successes in Korea.
 - B. Jap economic recovery astounding, superficially at least. Ban on trade with China not necessarily as serious as feared. Jap traders relieved over approval by SCAP of barter deal involving Kaillan Cmiedg exchange for cotton yarn.
 - C. Internally nation is quiet and govt relatively stable.
 - D. There is general satisfaction in knowledge that occupation is soon to end.
3. Nevertheless situation in Japan remains essentially volatile. If Dulles mission unsuccessful there will be inevitable reaction and widespread hostility toward US. A severe military defeat in Korea would result in scuttling and efforts obtain re-insurance elsewhere.

Overnight Info Policy Guidance 649.

1. Korea.

General MacArthur's statement 2/13 provides clarifying analysis of overall milit situation which we want most widely understood. His interpretation supplies broad strategic framework into which future developments shld be fitted as far as possible. In reporting MacArthur's balanced review of fighting, Media shld emphasize his points that UN Forces are engaged in war of manuever, not of position, and that immediate milit aims are to inflict as heavy punishment as possible on numerically superior enemy, striving keep enemy off balance and deny him tactical initiative. Heavy losses being inflicted upon Communist aggressors shld be stressed.

Media shld avoid evaluating local or tactical developments as major events or as pointing to decisive victories or defeats and continue avoid making 38th Parallel reference point of military or political action, following official statements, without speculation. Otherwise lines suggested in weekly guidances 44 and 45 are reaffirmed.

2. Cfm.

Soviet note of 2/5 is currently under discussion in tripartite talks in Washington, and it is hoped that an agreed reply will be ready by weekend or shortly thereafter. In meantime while continuing to avoid discussion of tripartite talks Media shld concentrate on demonstrating the validity of US, UK and French insistence upon broad scale examinations of causes of international tension at proposed four power meeting. Media shld reiterate that

US, UK and French policies are designed to eliminate causes of world tension and improve international relations, and shld recall and impress upon world opinion that it is Soviet aggressive policies which are responsible for global tension. Pending issuance of special guidance now under preparation, ideas outlined in weekly Info Pol Guidance 37 of 12/13/50, and special Guidance 75 of 1/31/51, indicate general line to be followed.

3. Colombo.

In reporting developments on Colombo Plan, financing of which is being discussed at 14 nation meeting beginning Colombo today, (2/13), stress this British Commonwealth program and refrain from giving currency to any reports implying US participation means US is either sponsoring plan or underwriting it financially. Media shld point out that initiative for planning and financing scheme is wholly responsibility of Commonwealth and that US will make own decisions concerning where and how its own economic assistance will be given in that area. Although purpose our participation in meeting is primarily to prevent duplication and overlapping of aid, it may be interpreted as demonstration basic US-Commonwealth unity on aim to further peaceful economic development of south and southeast Asia.

4. Germany.

Media shld give good play to Adenauer Statement urging US, UK, France and USSR to provide for free, all-German elections designed to reunite Germany. Media shld point out that western powers have always championed reunification of Germany under free secret elections in all Germany and so stated in letter to Marshal Chulikov May 25, 1950 and in note to Soviet Govt of Oct 6, 1950. In this connection Media shld make clear that Adenauer proposal is not tit for tat reply to Grotewohl suggestion, but that West German desire for reunification thru free elections has always been objective of German Federal Govt.

1. India: President's msg to Congress on food grains for India and subsequent developments shld give Media good opportunity in reporting and in original and selected comment to :

A. Stress US friendship for Indian people,
B. Emphasize "our traditional concern for human suffering" by indicating long record of US efforts relieve suffering wherever it occurs,

C. Show that American aid is given regardless of race, creed, color or political differences,

D. Incidentally get in some useful explanations US executive and legislative processes.

Incidents and events in long record of US aid to India itself shld be recalled to demonstrate points (A) and (B) above, such as: Thousands Indian students trained in US; US agricultural assist, US hospitals, schools and colleges in India; Asyam Relief Project, technical assist, etc. Caution shld be exercised to place these contacts in category of "friendship", not "relief". Thus, grant of food grains to India shld be projected not as any departure in US policy towards India but as further extension our traditional policy, even though aid heretofore has been on private rather than governmental basis.

US concern for human suffering shld be developed to show we do not regard giving of aid as "alms", the tossing of a crust of bread to a beggar, but as deep anxiety to help suffering regain his physical strength while retaining to full his self-respect. This "rehabilitation" concept is foreign to experience most Indians and needs explanation if our aims are to be properly understood. Explanations shld also help Indians to understand and accept conditions attached to grant of aid--condition designed to facilitate full use of supplies as nec, to plan wisely for further assist and "to forestall such crises in future".

Question of race, creed or color shld not be referred to explicitly, but left for Indians to draw as their own conclusion.

To discourage premature expectations that presidents action automatically assures granting of aid, Media shld stress this is only first step in legislative process, and explain what further congressional action is required. While usefully demonstrating workings of democratic process in US, this will enable any unpleasant facts or observations brought out in debate to be placed in proper context.

Matter of our political differences with Indian Govt shld be dismissed as irrelevant to problem, taking line indicated in President's msg that, "These differences must not deflect US from our tradition of friendly aid to alleviate human suffering."

Proposed immediate appropriation of only half of total grant proposed shld be explained as realistic approach to problem of mtg needs magnitude of which are not yet fully known. It will not in any way delay granting of immed assist nor will it reduce US determination to meet full needs of situation as and when necessary.

Supporting materials for media use in implementing above, including statement by Secretary, other speeches and releases, and a booklet, will be upcoming shortly.

2. Turkey: Media shld give moderate factual coverage to McGhee and Finletter visits to Turkey speculative stories highlighting military strategy and security aspects of visits, however, shld obviously be avoided.

Believed USSR delegates will accuse US of lowering world workers living standards and establishing war economy, and will try to prove to Latin Americans that USSR is workers paradise. Media should pick up material showing Soviet war preparations, especially percentage of budget being earmarked for defense, and magnitude of forced labor in USSR.
2. Italian Communists: Media should follow Special Guidance 76 of Feb 5.
3. Germany: Six important members of German Bundestag, including Heinrich Von Brentano (Floor Leader of CDU-Faction) arrived in US Feb 9 for 2 week visit.
Itinerary includes meetings with US legislators, EC, officials, and labor leaders in Wash and Detroit and visit to UN. Trip is sponsored by US Govt as part of Exchange of Persons Program.
Media should fully exploit visit as being important for Germany. For other areas it may provide useful reminder of a postwar development in Germany of a vigorous healthy diversified political life and Germany's progress toward "eventual and earned equality".
4. Burma: Media should give good play to NYT edit Feb 9 "On Burma's North Border" and to moderate comment of this type pertaining to existence of Burma-Chinese Peoples Republic Border dispute. Media shld not speculate on unverified reports of Burma-CPR negotiations.

Zehnder (Under-Secretary Foreign Office) today handed me Aide Memoire setting forth new steps being taken by Swiss toward control transit trade. Text has been telegraphed to Swiss Legation Washington and Bruggmann will present it to Dept in next day or so. Identical Aides Memoire being handed representatives other WE countries.

Briefly, new measures provide that Swiss Govt will furnish Swiss importers with certificate guaranteeing that any given shipment will be actually imported into Switzerland and not re-exported. Importer can then submit this document to foreign licensing authorities for use in obtaining licenses. Licensing authorities may thus be assured that shipments covered by Swiss Govt guarantees will not be re-exported, at least in original form. In effect, new measures provide for extension of system described LMGTEL 870, Dec 12 repeated Paris 120 to all kinds of shipments if foreign licensing authorities wish utilize it.

Guarantee certificates are based on undertaking by importer to import promptly and not re-export. Checks will be made in ea case and violations will be punished.

Zehnder's oral statements, which concerned primarily recent approach on Tri-Partite proposals, and legation's comments will follow in separate telegram. In meantime recommend that department give consideration to passing this and subsequent messages Frankfurt and Tokyo together with directive that NICOG and SCAP licensing authorities henceforth require license applicants for shipments destined Switzerland to produce Swiss Govt guarantee.

Attention is called to fact that while US has denied use of Japanese Mil personnel by US in mil actions in Korea, no statement has been made re use of Japanese in auxiliary capacity. So far as estab Natl Police Reserve is concerned, Dept has only SCAP's ltr to Prime Minister to reply upon for counter-action purposes despite statements by Jap officials concerned and discussion US press and elsewhere suggesting para-mil organization and tng.

Tokyo's C 60088, Aug 15 and Tokyo's 1002, Nov 14. Re use Jap munitions plants for production articles required in Korean campaign, Dep prepared to reply along lines of W 90738, Sep 6, 1950. 1. McMahon Resolution: Senate Resolution (2/8) titled "Declaration of friendship for American people to all other peoples of the world, including peoples of Soviet Union" should get heavy use. Following recent exchange of letters between Sen McMahon and Assistant Secretary McFall on Pospelov speech, resolution furthers continuing campaign to make clear

(A) We believe real interests of peoples of USSR are same as our own and

(B) We hold Kremlin, not peoples of USSR, responsible for present threat to security and well being of all mankind. Challenge to Kremlin to make contents resolution known to peoples USSR particularly important. In documenting "Historic and abiding friendship", media should recall President Wilson's message to Soviet Congress March 11, 1918, particularly last paragraph: "The whole heart of the people of the United States is with the people of Russia in the attempt to free themselves forever from Autocratic Government and become the masters of their own life." We should leave it to Russian people to conclude they have in fact succeeded only in exchanging one set of masters for another.

2. Trade Agreements: Media should report factually and soberly House of Representatives approval of Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, with restrictive "peril point" "escape" clause and 2 other amendments. Pessimistic press comment and speculation that Senate may reverse or modify House amendments should be avoided. The positive and genuine interest of United States in development of world trade under workable arrangements should be accepted. (See Overnight No 634 of Jan 23). Media should bear in mind that "peril point" and "escape" amendments are primarily concerned with manner of carrying out Trade Agreements rather than with the basic philosophy. In interpreting House action media should distinguish between Reciprocal Trade Concept and Administration of Act.

Soviet orbit clause demonstrates feeling of Congress that trade agreement concessions should not be extended to Iron Curtain Countries. In its present form, Price Support Clause could have far reaching negative effects, and we should not attempt to explain them away. In brief references media should merely indicate difficulty of reconciling Domestic Price Support arrangements with imports.

(A) British inventory of civilian type goods at war's end was $780,000,000; Soviet inventory was 2,600,000,000. British paid 472,000,000-60%. US is asking Moscow to pay Eight Hundred Million, or 30% of depreciated cost of peacetime utility goods.

(B) In negotiations so far, US has come down from 2.6 to 0.8 Billion; Soviet has come up from 170 Million to 240 Million.

(C) US asks no payment for Lend Lease items destroyed, lost, consumed in war effort; asks payment only for fair value of items of use in Soviet Post War Economy.

(D) US is still attempting to reach a reasonable settlement, Soviets in current meetings have indicated no willingness to negotiate.

(E) Under Lend Lease agreement, USSR obligated itself to return any residual items of use to US. Ships Lend Leased by the US to USSR are now urgently needed by the US. However, USSR is now arbitrarily utilizing as peace time assistance ships and other materials Lend Leased as war time aid.

ECAFE. If similar proposal to unseat Chi Natl Rep and seat Comma is made, US Rep will move or support motion that ECAFE postpone consideration of and action on any proposal unseat Rep Chi Natl Govt or seat Rep Chi Comma Regime until GA has taken action which ECAFE can take into account in making its decision same issue. This position based on fol considerations:

- (A) ECAFE's decision of May 16, 1950 that was wish and desire COMISN that Chi Rep issue be decided by higher body;

1. Gen.

Taking tone from Gen Eisenhowers speeches last week (together we can do anything if our heart is in it) task of all output and operators for coming weeks shld be "the buildup of confidence" - confidence in ourselves, in our allies; confidence in our pols and dipl; confidence peace can be kept; confidence Sov Imperial Expansionism can be countered successfully without gen war; confidence that working together, we and allies can achieve moral will, polit unity, and mil and econ strength to build citadel of peace in world.

This psychological buildup shld take place gradually, over considerable period time, to avoid giving rise to impression US is going thru mercurial swing from depths of pessimism to heights of optimism. For this reason we buttress every expression of confidence with solid facts, letting facts themselves carry most implication in initial phases of campaign.

2. UN.

Decisions on UN sanctions against Commie Chi cannot be anticipated in immed future. Comite on additional measures against Chi aggression set up in GA res Feb 1, has not held first mtg and any recommendations it makes later will have to be submitted to fully assembly. During period organization this Comite and initial discussions, US will take every opportunity to consult with UK and others on next step that may be taken. Such consultation will be private to avoid involving issue in heat of public debate and which might prejudice decisions and cause serious breach with allies. 1. Pacific Pact, as defined by Secretary at news conference today (Feb 7) is that "we have always been open-minded to suggestions for cooperative arrangements among Pacific Nations." Statements and proposals regarding such arrangements have come from several nations from time to time in past and it is only natural that question might arise during discussions in preparation for a peace settlement with Japan.

US, for its part, has not submitted any proposals for a Pacific Pact and has no immediate intention to do so. US role is entirely exploratory, and US welcomes any indication of general attitude of other Pacific powers.

In general, US would favor any arrangement among Pacific Nations which on basis of self help, mutual encouragement and cooperative exchange of assistance would safeguard rights of Pacific peoples to live as free men in fashion their own choosing without encroachment, dictation or domination from any source and which would advance cause of International Peace and promote stability and economic and social welfare in Pacific area.

In handling this subject in news and comment, media should observe following:

Overnight Info Policy Guidance 644. For INP, IBD and occupied areas.

1. Atomic

For output to areas outside Iron Curtain standing guidance on atomic developments given in Guidance 638 Jan 29 is reaffirmed. For language output Soviet Orbit only, media should now begin to make increasing use of news material relating to development of atomic and other new weapons (excluding biological warfare).

Example of useful material of this sort is interview with General Lawton Collins in current issue of "US News and World Report"-sticking closely, however, to actual quotes from interview and avoiding more sensational press interpretations of his words. For Soviet Orbit only.

Standing guidance on Nevada tests (present series of which were completed today) is hereby relaxed to permit use of press stories describing visual and concussion effects of detonations.

Moderate use of more sober press speculation, and the more varied the better, may also be made, provided it is always clearly labeled as such and accompanied by explanation that it has always been consistent policy of AEC neither to confirm nor to deny unofficial speculation re atomic developments. But in handling such material it is most important that it be presented calmly, unexcitedly and matter of factly, in the context of routine scientific research and development worthy of news coverage and not in context of balance of power politics.

2. Yugoslavia:

Although it is not desirable to initiate discussions of possibility of attacks on Yugoslavia and US position in such a contingency, Media should make clear in brief commentary of news reports concerning this matter that US, as department has stated publicly, has an important interest in situation of Yugoslavia vis the cominform nations. Discussion should not go into hypothetical questions of what US would do in event of military aggression against Yugoslavia, but if news reports raise question, inference should be clearly made that an important interest of a nation would be let go by default, especially 1 of magnitude of this Yugoslav issue. Place of Yugoslavia in overall picture of opposition to Kremlin's drive to empire is obvious. As assistance to Yugoslavia in recent past is demonstration of our national as well as our humanitarian interest.

3. CFM:

Media should await publication of text of latest Soviet note (expectable tonight) before commenting. US reaction may be given in Acheson comment his news conference tomorrow (2/7). (FYI begins: It is hoped achieve agreement on parallel reaction ourselves UK and France before Acheson speaks. Ends FYI). Thereafter in original and selected comment, Media should desist note along following lines.

A. Expose restrictive character of discussion held under terms of reference of "Council of Foreign Ministers" as laid down in Potsdam Declaration, which is what Soviet is asking for, as opposed to freer character of discussions in general meeting of 4 Foreign Ministers desired by Western Powers. However this should only be done in explanatory vein, and such comment should carefully avoid voicing any indication as to whether we will eventually either accept or reject Soviet terms for meeting, including proposal to restrict exploratory talks to Agenda only without substantial discussion of projected items.

B. Expose falsity of renewed Soviet charge that "rearmament of Germany" is cause of "Arms Race." True cause of all Western moves towards European security including Germany is threat of Soviet military power in service of Soviet Imperialism.

C. Expose Soviet references to Eisenhower as showing Soviet desire to undermine him as symbol of orderly, united and secure Western Europe as contrasted with chaotic, divided and weak Western Europe Soviet desires in order to achieve its expansionist aims.

D. Refute Soviet charges of western delay in convoking CFM in showing true cause of delay has been evasiveness and deliberate obstructionism of previous Soviet notes.

E. Avoid picking up any comments which suggest that Western Powers will be "forced to play" on Soviet terms, or that Soviet maneuvering on this issue will divide US from UK and/or France.

4. Germany.

In reviewing areas in which Soviet Union has deliberately disregarded previous agreements Media should keep in mind that "Oder-Neisse Boundary" was finalized at the German Polish Border in spite of fact that Potsdam agreement specifically provided this border was to be temporary and that Germany's final frontiers should be determined in the Peace Treaty. However this frontier has recently been ratified by East German regime thus signing away German heritage at best their Soviet masters. Media shld place finalization of Oder Neisse Line as a border between Polish Govt and nonelected East Germany puppet regime in context with other Soviet violations of agreements re Germany, such as erection of economic, political and cultural barriers, Berlin blockade, suppression of freedom in East Germany, concentration camps, and German Soviet Army. Comment shld emphasize that US and its allies have not recognized its finalization, that we want German people and their elected govt to have chance express their own desires and that real solution of this issue as of all others, can only be reached if Soviet Union demonstrates in action its willingness fulfill international agreements and respect fundamental human rights.

1. European Army

Media should play straight secretary's letter to Foreign Minister Schuman accepting invitation to send observer to conference opening Feb 6th called to implement proposals for creation of European Army. Where time or space permits, 3, 4 and 5 of letter should be quoted in full.

2. Germany

To clarify distinction between Bereitchaften (German-Soviet Zone Army Units) and regular police forces in Soviet Zone of Germany, Media should avoid referring to Armed Forces as "militarized police" "militarized peoples police", etc. As pointed out in department press released 538 May 23, 1950 Military Force is organizationally separated from police. While police falls under control of Ministry of Interior of so called German Democratic Republic, army is subordinate to Military Department of Soviet control commission. For propaganda purposes Soviets are attempting to avoid distinction and are furthering deception by assimilating ranks, uniforms, etc. The name German-Soviet Army (Deutsche Soviet Army) is suggested as a suitable distinctive name.

Overnight Info Policy Guidance 642 for INF, IBD and occupied areas:

1. Eisenhower: In initial phase of straight reporting, media will want to give widest play to tonight's (2/2) Eisenhower Broadcast textually or in condensation, as with yesterday's (2/1) congressional speech. Problems of emphasis and interpretation will arise in secondary follow up phase of origination and selection of comment. In this phase the 2 speeches shld be treated as part of single whole, of Eisenhower reporting to American Congress and American people on his mission to build defense of Atlantic Community. This mission cannot succeed unless he has wholehearted support of Govts and peoples of all NATO Allies, to which US can make greatest overall contribution in terms not only of material str and resources but freshness, morale and leadership. By taking 2 statements together for this purpose, media can avoid any comparisons between them, or attaching any significance to omissions from briefer prepared broadcast to points made in earlier extended extemporaneous congressional address. Wherever possible, media shld remind audiences that both statements addressed primarily to American rather than world public opinion in general, and for all areas, major emphasis shld be on overall tone of confidence: Confidence that peace can be kept; confidence that European peoples have will and determination to resist; confidence that "resistance power" of Europe can be built in time to detect atks. Couple with this his repeated assertions "our purpose entirely defensive" from interpreting his references to "modest preparations" of NATO as showing we are building defense adequate to resist atk but inadequate to intimidate or to undertake aggression.

For Europe, especially, his confidence in European will and determination to resist shld help to create greater confidence in US determination to spt Europe and honor fully US commitments under NATO Treaty. Counterpart to this is his emphasis that US cannot carry whole burden alone, that only thru cooperation among all Allies can task be accomplished.

By his insistence on priority urgency of equip for European forces rather than on troops from US, Eisenhower puts whole problem of defense on new plane, in which first priority is not on deployment of forces, but creation and training of forces and putting weapons in their hands. His insistence on time factor in this ("There is no time to waste") shld be treated as encouragement to urgency, but without contributing to impress on either that US is being precipitate or that Europe's case is hopeless because time is too short.

On specific pnts, his reference to Germany may be taken as sufficient formulation of pnt of view which may be expected increasingly to influence policy discussions on Germany's relation to Western Defense. But his references in same speech to lend lease, and to need for prolonged 20 to 30 year defense effort, might be subj to adverse interpretation and contribute further both to war wariness and war weariness in Europe, and may be played down in further comment finally, to lay ground work for theme which may become more prominent in time, media shd find ways to Eisenhower phrase: "The defense of freedom, exactly like the appreciation of freedom, is in the heart".

2. War criminals: Commutation of sentences of certain German war criminals shld be treated only if reaction makes it necessary for US media to explain measures taken. In commenting, media shld make clear that action taken was designed primarily as judicial review of sentences and that clemency was exercised where individual cases warranted it. Make clear that review of cases has been in process for over year, and is not influenced by US Policy towards Germany, except that it intends to "close the book" on Nazi era wherever possible and give Germans new terms of reference for their future political status.

Use McCloy and Handy statements extensively to explain particular decisions as needed.

For INF IBD and occupied areas.

1. Eisenhower.

Eisenhower speech to Congress (2/1) obviously is mine of useful propaganda material, both on philosophical and on practical political plane. Media should of course give it heavy coverage in straight news, supplemented by Congressional and other comment, avoiding wherever possible however using comment which places speech in context of "great debate" or implies Eisenhower is spokesman for 1 side or other in that debate. Further detailed guidance on interpretation of certain passages his speech for purposes of origination and selection of comment, such as references to Germany, manpower vs equipment, etc, will be upcoming shortly.

2. Japan.

Give good play to Dulles speech before Japan-America Society in Tokyo on Feb 2 (release from Tokyo expected about 11:00 PM, est, Feb 1) in connection his present mission discuss with General MacArthur and Jap leaders means of making progress toward Jap peace settlement. Speech is attempt clarify in general terms Jap people kind of peace settlement with Japan which is sought by US and other nations of free world and sets up 4 main goals of such a settlement: to afford Japan opportunity DMB.

A. Protect by her own efforts full sovereignty which peace will have restored.

D. Achieve moral stature and respected leadership thru force of good example. Note in connection with B that opportunity to share in collective security measures is in form of an invitation. Decision on whether to join in such measures or not will depend entirely on Japan-it will not be imposed.

Caution: Avoid any comment or interpretation implying that Dulles speech foreshadows final form of any peace treaty. Emphasize rather that speech is in line with exploratory nature of Dulles mission in that it sets forth American ideas for the purpose of eliciting a Jap response which will be taken into account in final stages of treaty making.

Special guidance 59 Oct 5, 1950 is still in force on general subject of a Jap Peace Treaty. We do not at this stage engage in forensic discussion of principles which US has proposed be incorporated in a treaty. (See Section II Part D).

In view Allen story Pacific Pact and lengthy article by Rep Javits Jan 30 NY Herald Tribune describing resolution on Pacific Pact introduced House last week, pact may become subject more extensive public discussion. Dept is contemplating following actions:

1. Secretary, if queried by press, will say we have always been open minded to suggestions for cooperative arrangements among Pacific Nations, that several nations have from time to time made statements and proposals with regard to such arrangements and the question might naturally arise during preparatory discussions on Jap peace settlement, particularly during your contemplated visit Pacific area.
2. Pres next week will discuss with New Zealand PRIMIN in very general terms Pacific arrangement we have in mind. He will confine himself to general outline you presented to Brit amb and will say you will discuss matter further when you visit New Zealand. In few days I will speak to Indo amb re Pacific Pact proposal in general terms you discussed with Brit amb. Indo amb will be informed you have no plan visit Indonesia, that what further steps shld be taken this matter will be subject consultations between our govts, that of course indication of general attitude Indo Govt wld be welcomed, and that we will keep latter fully informed. Cochran's views this course have been invited.

Saw Gen Salan today to see if he shared optimism his G-2 reflected CONTEL 389 this date. While cautious he seems sanguine, feels VM missed boat before US aid became felt and does not feel NHI will invade for present. Reverted to VM atk having spent itself 2 days before real fog arrived; if had waited, Fr wld have been in bad way, wld have held somehow but without inflicting vicious aviation punishment. By time Saigon reinforcements came worst was over. Said VM seem well commanded at bn level but higher strategy is faulty despite reputed foreign advisers.

With Feb bad weather still ahead anticipates more fighting but probably on harassment scale. Such atks have cost VM dear in past few days and if large scale attempts are made during present clear weather he will bring heavily armed B-26s from under wraps. Expects atks during New Year holidays Feb 5 to 10 more likely within Delta than in north. Re surmise of fld commanders that VM had recoilless weapons at Vinhyan, Salan said investigation locate had not confirmed this.

Overnight info Policy Guidance Nbr 640.

For INP, IBD and occupied areas.

1. Niemoeller: Paster Martin Niemoeller, who is 1 of World Presidents of World Council of Churches, has been invited to visit US to meet with and address various member groups of council. Niemoeller, accompanied by his wife, is expected to arrive in New York Feb 1. They will spend about 3 weeks in US. Background on Niemoellers present position is given in upcoming special guidance.

In light of this background, Media should:

- (A) Give only minimum coverage to Niemoeller visit and speeches by him or his wife.
- (B) In event Niemoeller publicly champions "neutralism" for Germany, wherever possible carry balancing comment indicating folly of this policy.
- (C) Avoid, in output to Germany as well as to other areas, depicting Niemoeller as an Anti-Nazi or as "peace-fighter". Instead, emphasis should be placed on materials which show absence of popular support for his linkage of political and religious affairs, and which reveal calm but firm opposition to his "neutralist" views.

Media should also bear in mind that Niemoeller's visit is not being sponsored either by the State Dept or by the Federal Ger Rep, and his remarks, consequently, will have no official character.

2. India: US desire to help India, despite recent differences in UN, appears to be increasing. However, we should not link discussions of this subject with differences in UN, nor should we make flat promise of help pending Congressional action.

3. Lend-lease: Pending further developments, Media should not attach any special significance to Sov request for postponement of today's (1/31) meeting on lend-lease, nor carry speculation suggesting postponement presages Sov breakoff of Nego.

4. Germany: In any comment on Grotewohl's proposal for renewed talks on German unification between West Ger Govt and Sov Zone Regime, fol points should be stressed:

(A) It is for Ger Bundestag, to which proposal is addressed, to decide whether a reply is required and if so, what form it should take.

(B) Proposal is neither unexpected or novel, since it is based on Prague Declaration, and contains no startling new offers.

(C) Grotewohl speech is highly evasive on important question of introducing freedom in Eastern Zone. By insisting that he will not accept prior "conditions" from the west, but will merely "meet for talks", he reveals that Adenauer reply has embarrassed Communists and gives support to suspicion that Communists desire prolonged talks for propoganda purposes, not action for real unity.

(D) When proposal is received by Bundestag, that body will unquestionably take account of fact that Grotewohl carefully avoids any definition of what he means by "free" elections, and makes no provision for adequate guarantees or supervision; that the "law for the protection of peace" belies East German pretense of sincerity in proposing unity; that there exist no genuine safeguards for the promised reduction of the East-Zone-Military Police.

"B. CCF aid to VM appears to have ceased due:

"1. Necessity supply troops Korea.

2. Necessity recruits against bandits in South China.

3. VM have not sufficient rice for selves so have none to trade for arms. Chi arms are on COD basis and opium though available is no longer acceptable for trade since ~~dis~~ approved by Communists.

"C. VM appear to lack sufficient equipment to regroup and launch major coordinated attack on Hanoi-Haiphong before end of present weather which favors them, and in time to offset increased French strength due to US aid. Hot season commencing April or May while favoring natives some is unfavorable to both native and western physically. Rainy season fol hot season stops all military operations due flooding of flat land. Therefore Oct or Nov appears earliest date VM likely to launch coordinated attack to drive French from Tonkin barring CCF intervention.

"D. VM expected to continue harrassing attacks on French posts perimeter of Delta for purpose causing losses by attrition and capturing rice.

1. Gen. Debates in UN over next step in Korean situation have high lighted problems of maintaining free world unity. Although crisis in polit comite seems to have eased, we still must exert extraordinary effort to demonstrate.

A. US building its own and free words str not as prelude to "inevitable" war but as deterrent further aggression and consequently to gen war.

B. US seeking goals common to all peoples seeking freedom, independence and security, including those under Kremlin domination, and.

C. US pols designed support and further attainment these common goals.

2. UN. With defeat Arab-Asian resolution and passage amended US res by substantial margin we shld present picture of free nations reconciling thru natural and democratic process of frank and open debate, their differing views. These differences were not over common goals referred to above but over most effective means of reaching those goals. Common goals were never in question. In course of debates--extending 12 weeks from announcement Chi Commie intervention in Korea--orig views of no or nation have prevailed but major doubts of most have been resolved. Patience persistence and spirit of accommodation--with no muffling of any point of view--have achieved gen agreement on stand and procedure most likely to produce desired results. In interpreting these developments we avoid attitude of vindicated virtue, stressing rather UN majority has reaffirmed principle on which it stood when ROK was invaded and has agreed on approach to solution of new problem created when Chi Commies interceded

Specifically the resolution its amendments and clarifying statements of intentions:

- A. Recognize fact of aggression.
- B. Reaffirm desire for negotiating peaceful settlement.
- C. Defer action by collective measures comite or sanctions if satis progress can be made toward pacific settlement.
- D. Do not commit any country in advance to any action on sanctions, and.
- E. Grant no additional auth to unified command.

Counter impression US has "bulldozed" its views thru by stressing fact changes and amendments have been made confidence procedures outlined in present res will enable UN to iron out remaining differences and chart effective course toward agreed common goals.

3. Eisenhower. While it is impossible to forecast specific contents Eisenhower's various reports - and media should not speculate on what he will say - it can be assumed his assessment of deficit in Western Europe will be generally helpful our purpose and should be exploited to utmost. We shld keep internatl character his posn and mission to fore, that he is responsible to NATO as whole and reports thru NATO standing go in his official capacity public expectations here and abroad are already over high and should not be further built up. Remember Eisenhower can make recommendations how requirements NATO defense can be met but it is responsibility member states, not Eisenhower to determine how each country and its people can best play full part.

Output to non-Eur areas shld present NATO program as Euro contribution to str of free world and shld make clear US mil and econ aid to Eur is only one part US integrated global program of mil and economic aid.

4. Tripartite talks. No reply yet been recd from USSR our Jan 23 note re holding quadripartite exploratory talks preparing for possible four power FORMIN mtg. However tripartite discussions between Amb Jessup and UK and fr Amb have begun in Wash to work out agenda to be presented at quadripartite exploratory talks. Brief press statements are contemplated at outset and close of tripartite conversations but every effort will be made prevent "leaks" on development during mtgs. In gen these tripartite talks should be played down. In particular it is important avoid far as possible.
