Reporting procedure for stocks of gold and precious metal held by your Comd and acquisitions thereto is subject.

Continuing interest of Treas and other US Govt Depts in gold, silver and precious metals acquired by forces under your Comd suggests desirability of regular mo inventory rpt showing types, quantities, origin and ownership of such metals on hand at preceding month-end, acquisitions during current mo, and cumulative stocks each metal end current mo, together with other pertinent facts as may be available at time each reporting. Subject rpt apvd and control symbol assigned SA-M 2-67.

Treas has referred to recent press rpts of ingot recoveries from Tokyo Bay and requested info as outlined above. Procedure in par 1 above would avoid recurring inquiries of like nature.

FROM : WASHINGTON
TO : CINCPAC (FOR GEN SECY IMTFE)
NR : WCL 37419

Reurad Apr ZX 31373 on Apr 27 talked with Judge Manley O Hudson of Harvard, Fred K Nielsen, Georgetown Univ and former Legal Adviser, State Dept, J.L. Kunz, Univ of Toledo, Valentine Jobst III, Univ of Ill, Thomas R White of Phila and Ernest Damours, Atty Gen of NH, regarding position of internatl law member of IMTFE and regarding request of Gen Secretariat of IMTFE for 5 internatl lawyers to serve as advisers to defense panel contained in AFPAC TT item 21 of 13 Mar. At are interested. Judge Hudson will be available after 7 June if he can return by time Harvard re-opens in Sept. He is former member of World Court of Internatl Justice. Do you want Judge Hudson under these terms either as adviser to IMTFE or as 1 of F ME advisers to defense panel. Judge Hudson recommends 5 above named persons most highly. Nielson, White and Damours are lawyers and Kunz and Jobst are professors of Internatl Law. Kunz is former German Univ Prof who came to the US about 20 yrs ago and was naturalized. Phillip Jussup of Columbia and Zachariah Chafee of Harvard can not accept because of illness in family. We have req 324 covering 1 adviser to IMTFE but do not have req and APR for 5 advisers for Defense Panel or for Dr Brendan F Brown for IPS. Please advise on telecon with Keenan on 1 May as to how many internatl lawyers desired.

India Resident-General advises that Govt of India has nominated R. M. Pal, former Judge of Calcutta High Court as its member on IMTFE and that he is ready to lv for Tokyo upon notification from SCAP of his apmt.

Next to last sentence of cable 25 Apr re IBM equipment should read "From IBM 215 additional headphones and cabling nor 265 headphones."

Kim said "Korean problems are the off springs of Soviet-American differences" and urged "Immediate, simultaneous" withdrawal of the 2 forces from his country.

Allan Jackson on CBS said "The Joint American Soviet Commission on Korea has approved a list of questions which Korean Democratic parties and social organizations must answer before their advice will be asked on the formation of a provisional government. The questions will concern the character of the government to be established; but we must wait a further communique from the commission before learning specifically what those questions are ID."

Reurad G2426OGSKRP, 12 April 1946 Judge Advocate General has ruled that the provisions of Public Law 301, 79 Congress, excludes personnel of the Army of the Philippines from any rights, privileges, or benefits afforded by the missing persons act. It is the further opinion of the Judge Advocate General that under the provisions of the Military appropriation act for 1946 and Public Law 301, 79 Congress, The Commanding General, Western Pacific, is authorized to pay accrued arrearages of pay to personnel of the Army of the Philippines. Opinion of Judge Advocate General is quoted in part:

"The extent to which pay has accrued to the mentioned personnel during periods in which they were missing, missing in action, or captured is a question of Philippine Law as to which this office cannot render an authoritative opinion. Unfortunately, only limited source materials are available, and these have revealed no Philippine Statute or decision directly pertinent. Attention is invited, however, to section 27 A, Commonwealth Act number 569, dated 7 June 1940, which provides in pertinent part that "All enlistments in force at the outbreak of the War, or other grave national emergency, or entered into during its continuation, shall continue in force until 6 months after its termination unless sooner terminated by the President". It is suggested that the Commanding General, AFWESPAC, be advised to make request of the Judge Advocate General of the Army of the Philippines for opinion as to the pay status under Philippine Law of members of the Army of the Philippines in appropriate cases."

Request that War Department be advised of opinion rendered by Judge Advocate General of the Army of the Philippines when received.

New York Times prints letter to editor from Doctor James Shin, Field Director General of Korean-American Council and "A Korean Long resident of New York." Letter says Korea has only 2 political parties, Democrat and Communist, rather than many as often reported. Letter says division at 38 parallel is "detrimental to the Korean people both politically and economically" and says American policy of non proselyting while Russians are "Not only encouraging but even impelling the Koreans to become Communist" is a "Negative Virtue." Letter concludes. . . .
"What we Koreans want is that the occupational forces, at present, about 300000 Russians in the North and 30000 Americans in the South be withdrawn with the exception of 1000 of each force. To 2,000 soldiers should be added 500 each from both the British Forces and the Chinese Nationalist troops, making a temporary Joint Commission Army which could supervise a General Election in Korea as soon as possible. We feel that in all fairness this election should take place within 3 to 6 months in order to afford a proper expression of the desires of the Korean people and to enable them, without outside influence or inside pressure, to determine upon the Government of their own choice."

WASHINGTON MSG NBR WX 86680 DTD 5 MAY 46 CONT'D:

Economical operation will be necessary and all installations which can be discontinued without prejudice to theater commanders mission should be closed, since the department funds are being greatly reduced. Red Cross indicates possible necessity of its complete withdrawal of club program after June 47, and likewise some doubt exists as to the extent to which WD appropriated funds will be available after that date. In fiscal year 1948 it may, therefore, be necessary to operate these installations as post activities without Red Cross aid and possibly without aid of appropriated funds. Please advise on acceptability of proposed agreement, indicate whether this tentative agreement for fiscal 1947 can be placed in effect in your theater prior to 30 June 46, and inform WD what additional funds, if any will be required.

Overseas club and recreational activities of Red Cross is subj. (This message has no bearing upon Army service clubs which is separate program) WD has been notified by Red Cross that fund limitations will require extreme curtailment of Red Cross overseas club and recreational program unless cost of local civ labor, facilities and equipt can be supplied by WD, Accordingly following tentative agreement between Amer Nat Red Cross and WD is submitted for your study.

Such Red Cross Club and recreational facilities as may be needed by the theater that continue to use any such present distinctive names as "Low Point Inn", "Cups and Saucers", et cetera, and the Red Cross insignia will continue to be used in such establishments. They will, however, be redesignated "Recreational Clubs for Military personnel-operated under Red Cross management" or some similar designation, and will be maintained as army activities and operated by Red Cross under management agreement with the Army. Professional Red Cross personnel will be supplied by Red Cross without charge and Red Cross policies for club operation will not be disturbed. For example, no alcoholic beverages will be served and no charge will be made for food or refreshments served in clubs except meal service. Chinese peacetime Army is subj. Refer CFBX 29854 and CX 59829.

Part 1. To CG CHINA. Your recommendations CFBX 29854 are being reviewed. View here that many units, for example, T/O & E 5-75, 5-88, 8-27, 9-37, 10-57, with retention of only mil items. Defined in ourad 83738 authorized, lose organizational identity. Also retention of equip for units such as T/O & E 5-55, 6-75, 6-335, 17-25 and 18-25 is believed inadvisable in view of the capabilities of the Chinese Soldier to operate and maintain and unsuitability to Chinese terrain. Request you reconsider your recommendation in light of definition of mil type items made in WX 83738, the suitability of items to be retained for Chinese terrain and the capabilities of the Chinese Soldier to operate and maintain.

TO CINCPAC

Part 2. Propose to approve retention in your theater of ammo reqmts for peacetime Chinese Army based on 2 years training allowance for weapons retained under WX 85281 within availability of excess stocks your theater and provided such ammo has storable life of at least 2 1/2 years. Desired are your comments on fol:

A. General statement of availability of assets in your excess stockages to meet these total computed reqmts, for example, percent of items with shortages and list of typical items with shortages indicating percent of total reqmt you can meet.

B. Availability and location of storage for this reqmt.

C. Additional maintenance problems entailed by this program in terms of additional personnel required and cost to United States Government.

- (3). Civilian type aircraft are authorized for inclusion within the program unless later demands for this type aircraft in the US make it more desirable to return such aircraft to the ZI; in such case you will be notified. For such civilian type aircraft, (Troop Carrier Aircraft) there will be 2 years replacement.

Subject to availability, Wright Field is presently retaining in stock the equipment and maintenance items peculiar to IAF, but not including aircraft, for this program. They will hold these stocks in ZI until shortage list is received from theater, at which time arrangement will be made for transfer of shortages for the Chinese. Wright Field Depots are seriously crowded, and early action is required to determine shortages which they must provide in order to relieve them of storage requirements. As availability of equipment in the theater becomes known, please notify Wright Field in order to prevent the retaining of equipment by Wright Field which is no longer required to fill shortages.

The query from CG FACUSA (A 73591, 22 April 46) asking if Chinese want this program and will accept delivery of this program through FLC indicates uncertainty as to status of program. CG CHINA please confirm that Chinese understand this program and are willing to purchase from appropriate disposal agencies, and if necessary, accept delivery in the US.

JCS ltr of 9 Jul 73

Your 230717 Z not to all refers.
In response to CINCPAC request that Japanese armed force personnel be retained in Marianas until 1 January 1947 CNO has advised that (1) US policy requires that such personnel be returned to Japan as promptly as shipping priorities will permit. (2) Accordingly retention is dependent entirely on availability of shipping. (3) Agrees that benefit will accrue to US if assignment of low priority to repatriation of Japs from Marianas particularly in view need for repatriation from SEAC. (4) Specific date for completion of Marianas repatriation should not be set as it depends on application of above policy.

COMMARIANAS has advised that if POWS and DMPS can be retained until 1 JAN 1947 He can immediately increase army Guam quota to 1500 daily with possible increase to 2000 daily after 1 June by importation to Guam of sufficient POWS and DMPS it therefore appears that requirements your 230717Z can be substantially met provided that you can adjust shipping priorities as outlined para 1 so as to achieve retention for the desired period. Consideration being given to resumption ltd postal coms between Japan and outside world except Germany. Our understanding is that SCAP regs prohibit postal coms except with Korea. Since Japan considered "Enemy territory" under US trading with enemy regs, trade and com between US and Japan prohibited.

State, War, Treasury and PO Depts considering restoration of ltd postal serv between Japan and outside world except Germany with fol limitations:

A. Serv to include postcards 1 ounce lets and printed matter.

B. Contents of coms to be restricted to personal and family matters only. Business, financial and comcl coms would still be prohibited, incl all transactional coms such as those which contain instructions or authorizations to effect property and financial transactions, and those which contain currency, securities, checks and drafts, payment orders or other financial instruments.

Since there are no censorship controls in US and most other countries, it would be necessary for required controls to be exercised by you. Principal requirement would be effective censorship of all incoming and outgoing msgs to insure that unauthorized msgs or those involving undesirable persons in Japan are not passed. Treasury Dept and Off Economic Security Policy of State Dept feel that effective censorship would be 100% censorship. Request your opinion.

Your advice specifically requested on:

A. Effective censorship.

B. Should postal service be ltd in first instance to postcards in order to ease initial burden on censorship, or for other reasons.

INS dispatch fr Seoul states Soviet American Commission Meeting was adjourned when Russian delegates refused to consult with parties affiliated with representative Democratic Council of Southern Korea and refused to discuss elimination of 38 degree boundary. Story says General Hodge announced circumstances of adjournment.

Richard Johnston in New York Times writes here "is better than even chance" the Commission will "collapse altogether." Johnston states "It may be said, authoritatively, that the Soviet delegations adamant refusal to agree to the consultation with any Korean political leaders who have voiced their disapproval of the Moscow decision on Korea threatens to break the back of the Commission. . . .According to competent observers, the issues threatening the existence of the Commission may be simplified as follows:

The Americans desire to consult all Korean Democratic Political Leaders, while the Russians wish to exclude, on 1 pretext or another, all but the Communists and their satellite leftists. . . .There is speculation tonight in the capital as to what effect the news of the Commission crisis may have on the Koreans. It is believed that it may transmit itself into action, in which the opposing political factions may attack each other with things other than words."

Richard Johnston in New York Times reports from Seoul submission to Moscow of General Hodges request American newsmen be allowed to accompany Soviet-American Commission to Northern Zone.

Johnston comments "Observers here note that there seems to be no haste on the part of the Soviet Delegation to get its job done. It is noted in this regard that the Russian Delegates and their Staffs are obviously enjoying their visit to the American Zone, where they have complete freedom of movement and can make unlimited purchases.

Meanwhile the local Communist Party continues to capitalize on 2 factors from which it is deriving strength and upon which it is basing an increasingly active campaign here.

First is the constant report of successes of the Chinese Communist Forces in China and the strength of the Communists in Manchuria. Second is a greatly accelerated campaign to dis Americans here and to laud the Soviet Union."

AP from Seoul reports suspension of commission negotiations and departure of Russian members for Northern Korea. "American Army press release" on adjournment. Also quotes General Hodge saying "The American delegation is ready to resume work any time the Soviet delegation desires." AP story says "It was also reported without confirmation that the Russians were miffed at a reported recommendation by former President Hoover that food be imported from the Russian zone to the American zone."

Richard Johnston has long story in New York Times stating sessions broke down over refusal of Soviet delegates to consult with Korean groups who had expressed any opposition to Moscow decision. Refers to "More than a month of wrangling and bickering in which the Soviet delegation offered stolid resistance to every American effort to speed the fulfillment of the Moscow decision." Johnston quotes Army announcement on adjournment extensively.

From Seoul reports General Hodge has warned Koreans against "Undue excitement" over adjournment. Story says "Koreans themselves, although haphazardly predicting an impasse for the past several days, were caught flatfooted by the sudden development and remained mute so far. Despite General Hodges warning, observers expected an outburst by Rightist parties of oratory and recrimination against the trusteeship for Korea as proposed by the Moscow decision. Attitude of the Leftists, who first opposed trusteeship and then did an about face in favor of it 6 weeks ago, remained unpredictable"

INS from Tokyo reports MacArthur Headquarters decline comment on adjournment.

New York Times story from Seoul reports departure of Soviet Delegates for Russian Zone.

Washington Star editorial calls Commission breakdown "Another failure and deadlock in the effort at genuine cooperation and mutual understanding between the United States and the Soviet Union." Editorial blames Russians for refusing to "Implement either of the main provisions in the prior Rus-American Agreement" and for laying down conditions on the Provisional Government "which amounted to the exclusion of all native elements except the Communists and those definitely favoring the Soviet Union."

Allan Jackson on CBS noted General Hodges warning to Koreans that "Any demonstrations can only hurt the cause of Korean Independence."

Albert Warner on Mutual said of the breakup "The American Delegation says the Russians would not deal with any Korean Groups which had opposed an Allied Trusteeship of the country. In other words, Koreans who wanted an immediate independence, quite natural aspiration, will be purged. Thus the world continues to head toward uncertainty, confusion and suspicion."

Raymond Swing on ABC compared Russian stand in Korea with our own policy of seeking to obtain. Swing said our maximum duty in Korea is "To make sure that in due course the people have the right to choose their own leaders and take the consequences." He said "To start out insisting on the recognition of Korean interests which are dedicated to make trouble and to do so in the name of democracy does not seem to be constructive."

Columnist Harold Ickes attacks unification bill, charging National Security Resources Board it creates, could usurp functions of other cabinet departments and even "destroy the executive arm of the Government as it is now constituted." Ickes says "it would be absurd to believe that the Army did not know of the bills potentialities. Extraordinary measures were taken to keep the advent of the 'little stranger' from the public." Ickes charges coordination has never been lacking between civilian heads of War and Navy Depts but rather among field commanders.

Washington dispatches state House will vote Monday on Senate measure extending draft as is until 1 July. Editorial pressure urges House concurrence but specifies this extension not enough and longer program must be worked out. New York Times carries editorial on draft for 3rd successive day stating legislation will be adequate "only when President and Congress begin to collaborate on creation of permanent military establishment" sufficient for international obligations and own security. Baltimore Sun, Philadelphia Inquirer and Wall Street Journal also have editorials calling for action on selective service.

Washington Story says Congressman May will call General Devers before House Military Committee Tuesday to explain remarks about Congress. Story says Devers had denied use of term "coward" in his interview and emphasized he spoke as private citizen and not for War Department.

Richard Johnson writes in New York Times American Delegates on Joint Korean Commission are pessimistic over prospects for the Commission's success and Koreans are mistrustful of the body. Johnson says... "There are indications that the talks may drag on indefinitely and that it may be July or August before there is an establishment of a Korean Provisional Interim Government, if, indeed such a body can be established at all...." Account further states Koreans fear consultations with local political parties will be "so much shadow play" and eventual Interim Government will be group selected by whichever country (United States or Russia) is able to dominate.

Johnson comments on General Hodges radio address... "To General Hodge has fallen the unhappy task of trying to explain to Koreans that the Commission is working in the best interest of this country. Today General Hodge went on the radio to explain to Koreans the latest joint communique. With the Moscow decision on the one hand, and the last communique in which the Commission announced its agreement to consult with Korean groups that were not opposed to the "aims" of the decision on the other, General Hodge tried to reconcile the two. It was a difficult job."

Johnson also mentions new communist propaganda line which blames failure of 1919 revolt against Japanese on its inspiration by reactionary forces and accuses United States of "trying to dominate the world... supporting anti democratic forces."

Ed Herlihy in news broadcast over NBC mentioned Easter Services held by American troops on Korea in two former Japanese Shrines.

Part 4.

Assuming that Philippine Commonwealth is responsible for printing of emergency currency notes, and that responsibility for the registration and deposit of emergency currency notes now rests with the Philippine Commonwealth, it is desired that you undertake at once such steps as are necessary to carry out intent of W 85012. The recommendations which you supply WD and United States Govt will permit negotiations with the Commonwealth Govt and arrival at a reasonable settlement of this problem. The settlement will probably be a sum of money paid the Philippine Commonwealth, possibly so qualified as to assure that those who served and supplied your forces will receive the maximum benefit therefrom. Without these recommendations from you, the WD cannot act in the best interests of the US Govt. Steps necessary will doubtlessly involve both an analysis of records and data submitted by Commonwealth, and original investigations by officers of your Command. Sufficient priority must be given to obtain personnel necessary to accomplish this mission in minimum amount of time. It is not necessary or advisable to await formal presentation of a final claim by the Commonwealth before measures are undertaken to acquire desired info. The most desirable situation would be to have on hand at the time Commonwealth claim is presented, all data and info necessary for a quick determination of the extent of its validity. The president and I both desire this.

submitted by this committee and referred to radio directive to CINCAFPAC. President was assured of WD continuing aggressive action towards a final settlement of this problem which would reflect credit on the military establishment and United States Govt.

- Q. On 25 Apr 46, CINCAFPAC radio (CM in 5112) again urged that United States Govt should avoid any commitment in matters pertaining to emergency currency, and request that directive of W 85012 be reconsidered. CINCAFPAC's estimate of time required to gather necessary info which WD had requested, was 6 months, providing qualified personnel could be procured for purpose. CINCAFPAC instructed the CG, AFWESPAC to institute immediately study of data collected by Commonwealth Govt.

Part 3.

During period of printing and use of emergency currency, the only channel of contact between United States Govt and military forces and loyal civilians in Philippines was through Hqs USAFFE and CINCSWPA. Clearly the only means of undertaking a determination of extent of United States financial responsibility for the use of emergency currency for military purposes in Philippines is through CG, AFPAC. There is no question as to redemption. That is settled. The question of the extent of liability of United States Govt is not settled.

CINCAFPAC replied on 4 Feb 46 (CM in 792), pointing out that the Philippine Govt had appointed an emergency currency committee to investigate issuance of emergency currency throughout the various islands. It suggested that WD take no action until reports of these committees were received. The WD acted accordingly.

United States paying for 60 percent and the Philippine Commonwealth paying for 40 percent of the redemption. Why the deposit, was not accomplished elsewhere, is not clear.

- I. As far as is known here, no currency registration or redemption has taken place elsewhere; except that a rumor persists that Philippine Army Disbursing Officers have been redeeming currency on the Island of Mindanao. However, on 7 June 1945, under administrative order # 7, the President of the Philippine Commonwealth appointed an emergency currency committee to study and investigate the "bona fide" emergency currency issued by duly authorized emergency currency committees in the Philippine Islands. This committee rendered its report on 31 Jan 1946.
- J. In his letter of 25 Oct to Secretaries of Treasury and War, the President stated that: "It would appear that to the extent that this currency was used either directly or indirectly for the prosecution of the war, its redemption is a responsibility of the United States Govt;" and request "that the War and Treasury Depts make a careful analysis of this situation and submit recommendations as to the necessary steps which should be taken to discharge the obligations of the United States Govt."
- K. Paras 8 A and B of JCS 1127/3, DTD 10 Nov 44, suggests, "as a general policy that bona fide emergency currencies issued pursuant to your authority for your military needs by recognized United States and Philippine Commonwealth authorities should be exchanged immediately". Within your discretion you were authorized to restrict the exchange to a limited amount pending a subsequent determination of arrangements for conversion.

Until 24 November 1945, the date of arrival in Manila of the United States High Commissioner to the Philippine Islands, the CINCSWPA, was the Representative of the Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces of the United States and of the President of the United States. By executive order 9616, 14 September 1945, the President defined some of the duties of the High Commissioner as prescribed in the act of 17 January 1933 as amended (48 VSC 1237), and made the High Commissioner "Responsible for the representation, administration and coordination of the authority and policies of the United States Government in respect to the Philippine Islands". The CINCSWPA, without question (in exercising his authority as Military Commander of the United States and Philippine Forces during actual combat and when it was impossible for a high commissioner to be present or to exercise his legal authority since the Philippines were held by the enemy) exercised these responsibilities prior to the arrival of the high commissioner.

With respect to financial matters, particularly "Emergency currency notes", paragraph 5 of appendix A Joint Chief of Staff 1127/3 provides that "All holders of any peso or centavo paper currency of whatsoever nature or description, except Philippine Treasury Certificates, should be required to deposit in designated institutions or agencies all their holdings of such notes during a prescribed period against an accredited non transferable receipt in the currency of deposit." In each Allied and neutral country the United States has assumed responsibility for compensating the issuing government for the currency its Commanders legitimately received and expended. C. As previously indicated, all organized military forces of Philippine Commonwealth were ordered into the service of the Armed Forces of the United States by President of the United States on 26 July 1941. After the formal surrender, the operation of guerrilla forces under immediate American and was encouraged. Prior to the reoccupation of the Philippines, Area and District Commanders with their troops were recognized by the Commander in Chief Southwest Pacific, as an element of his Command. Under the provisions of executive order No 21 issued by the President of the Philippines on 28 October 1944, all persons of any nationality or citizenship actively serving in recognized military forces in the Philippines were "Conceded to be on active service in the Philippine Army;" temporary grades and ranks were confirmed, and a recognized military force was defined as a force under a Commander who had been appointed, designated or recognized by the Commander in Chief of the Southwest Pacific Area. This executive order came to the attention of the War Department early in December 1944. The act of 21 March 1934, 48 Statute 456, Section 7 (2), provides that the President of the United States has authority to suspend the taking effect or the operation of any executive order of the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands under certain conditions. No action was taken by the War Department or by the President to suspend the taking effect of this order. Consequently under the provisions of the military order of 26 July 1941 of the President of the United States, the recognized guerrilla forces came into the service of the Army of the United States.

1941 and thereafter until reoccupation, President of Philippine Commonwealth authorized under certain limits and conditions, printing and issuance of emergency currency notes for local governmental and commercial use and for financing activities of Armed Forces. War Department's knowledge of these procedures was obtained largely through radios passing over Army network between President of Philippine Commonwealth (who spent much time in Washington) and agencies in Philippine Islands, through Headquarters Commanding General United States Army Forces in the Far East, of Commander in Chief Southwest Pacific. Secretary of War was not consulted in printing of emergency currency, had no control over Emergency Currency Committee, and assumed no responsibility in connection therewith. On occasion President of Philippine Commonwealth raised question as to whether or not others had assumed his power to authorize currency boards to issue notes for certain areas; but except possibly for so called unauthorized currency committees, responsibility for printing currency appears to have been largely accepted by Philippine Commonwealth.

- B. By military order of 26 July 1941 President of United States called and ordered "Into the service of the Armed Forces of the United States for the period of the existing emergency, all the organized military forces of the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines." Funds for the "Mobilization, operation and maintenance of the Army of the Philippines including calling into the service of the Armed Forces of the United States the organized military forces of the Commonwealth of the Philippines" were first appropriated in 3rd Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 approved 17 December 1941 and thereafter in annual appropriation acts and the 1st Supplemental Surplus Appropriation Rescission Act, 1946, approved 18 February 1946.

B. Solution of this problem is of utmost importance to United States Army at this time. The President desires prompt action in this matter. Specifically, the amount of emergency currency used for military purposes in the Philippines and the extent United States Army financial responsibility are to be determined. There is no question as to redemption. That is settled. The question of the extent of liability of United States Government is not settled. Under the current plan for the reorganization of the War Department it is very desirable that the Deputy to the Director of Common Supply and Procurement be an Air Force Officer experienced in procurement. The Under Secretary of War desires Brigadier General Orval Cook for this purpose for assignment in the War Department at the earliest possible date. Under instructions from COMGENAIR Baker when recently in your theater discussed the availability of Cook with Whitehead. Whitehead felt he could not spare Cook on account of the importance of his present assignment. Since Baker's return and report, the relative importance of Cook's present theater assignment and of his proposed assignment in the War Department has been carefully considered. In view of the importance of the position here and the urgency for filling it immediately it is requested you release Cook. Your concurrence will be appreciated.

Desired that following message be transmitted to all WAC personnel your command without delay:

It is my pleasure to transmit to you, for the WAC's under your command, General of the Army Eisenhowers greetings on the 4th anniversary of the Womens Army Corps, 14 May 1946, and to add my own tribute. General Eisenhowers message follows;

"An occasion such as this, the 4th anniversary of the Womens Army Corps, gives me the opportunity to express my satisfaction in the impressive record of competence achieved by the Army Service Women. On this, the first peacetime observance of the Corps anniversary, the Army, and I am certain, the people of America, join me in greeting the 25000 WAC's still in the Corps, on duty here at home, and across the oceans in the European Theater, in China, Japan, Korea, and in Hawaii. You, and the 75000 of your members who have returned to civilian life, shared many of the hardships of the soldier, rejoiced in his advances against stubborn, fanatical foes. Yours is a stirring glory of American Women who worked to help fighting men achieve victory.

To those of you still on the team, shouldering the responsibilities of reconstruction and peace, our special appreciation. Signed Dwight D Eisenhower, General of the Army, Chief of Staff."

Today, the events of the last 4 years will pass in review in the minds of all who have ever worn the uniform of the Womens Army Corps. Admittedly and experiment brought about by the critical need of manpower in 1942, we have moved from the experimental novelty to a vital status that proves the members of the Womens Army Corps have been and are essential in the Army. New York Times story from Seoul reports breaking up of huge counterfeit ring, reported to have been supplying funds to the Korean Communist Party. The ring was smashed with the arrest of 15 men, including the Assistant Financial Director of the Communist party. With the assistance of US Army CIC agents, Korean detectives raided a printing shop in the building that houses Communist party Headquarters and made the arrests. The ring had printed 3 million Yen in 100 Yen denominations, most of which are still circulating. AP also reported story.

New York Times Editorial places blame on Soviets for breakdown of the United States Soviet Commission meetings. Times said "our representatives could not have reached agreement with the Russians without surrender of one of the principles on which our country is founded-the right of an individual to express his opinion freely. To make the prolonged conference at Seoul successful it would have been necessary for our representatives to have agreed to the barring from a provisional Korean Government of all leaders who had protested United States-Russian occupation of their country, who had opposed the proposition to establish a trusteeship or who, presumably, had expressed opposition to Communist control of Northern Korea, where no political opposition is permitted."

The statement, said the Times, probably could have been foreseen. There is no such thing as "The loyal opposition" in the Communist lexicon.

Chief of Chinese Mission in Japan of their acceptance on the basic principles covered by the draft tentative agreement prior to initiating further conferences or approving movement of advance parties. Pending mutual agreement on principles, tentative plans are based on: Paragraph A. Probably allocation of the Nagoya Area of Southern Honshu to the Chinese force, with a possible alternate allocation on the Niigata Area on the west coast of Honshu. Paragraph B. Integration of the Chinese force into a US Army Corps with functions comparable to a US Division. Paragraph C. Other arrangements comparable to those established for the British Commonwealth Force except for logistics, where the US sponsorship of the Chinese Army program is considered to modify to some extent the limitations on US logistic support to be furnished. However, basic principle of self sufficiency of allied components will apply to extent of Chinese National capabilities. In this respect it is not believed advisable for the Chinese to depend on 8th Army as a supply agency for the Chinese force. In general, all US supplies, except for certain surplus stocks earmarked in Japan for the Chinese, should be furnished from supply establishments in China as a normal Chinese Army supply function. New York Times Dispatch from Seoul says local reaction to Commission breakdown "Has continued to build up here and is shown in the Local Press." Story says Rightist and Middle Papers blame Russian Delegates for breakdown while Leftists predict resumption of negotiations. Dispatch continues ... "Meanwhile the United States Military Government continued to work uninterruptedly, ignoring the crisis in the Joint Commission and the breakdown of the negotiations. It was believed in some quarters that the replacement of Americans in the Military Government structure with Koreans would be speeded up so as to give the Koreans here a governing body of their own, although the supervisory capacity of the Military Government would be fully maintained."

Washington Post Editorial states "The United States would like nothing better than to clear our of Korea and leave the destinies of that nation to its own people" but notes "Trend of Russian Policy in Korea in direction of making that country as much of a Satellite as most of the States bordering Russia have already become" and concludes ... "It is better that one half of Korea be allowed to enjoy Democratic Liberties than that the whole nation be made a Satrapy of the Kremlin."

New York Herald Tribune Editorial says both Americans and Russians have made mistakes in Korea but "Essential point to be made on the failure in Korea is that it is a mere symptom of a far greater failure... there is a tendency to divide not only Korea and not only the Far East but whole earth into spheres of influence."

AP from Seoul reports "General Hodge... took the initiative today toward reopening discussions with Russia aimed at setting up a unified Government for the divided country. Hodge wrote a letter to Guard General I M Chistiakov, the Russian Commander at Heijo emphasizing that the Americans were ready to resume negotiations of the Joint American-Soviet Commission on 1 days notice. ..."

Washington Star prints letter to the editor criticizing editorial which blamed Russians for failure of Joint Commission. Says breakdown is due "not to 1 power but both powers." Says American Military Government policy is "to aid and protect the Korean collaborationists to control the Korean Democratic Party and the economic institutions." Letter is signed by Korean Kilsoo Hean and also charges "in the American Military Government Advisory Council of 11 members 9 Koreans are known collaborationists who fought against America and who exploited their own fellowmen." Writer claims Democratic Party former chairman Chin Woo Song served under Japanese Army Intelligence Service and present chairman Sung Soo Kim was Japanese Consul General in Manchuria. Letter concludes "just as long as the US Military Government insists upon utilizing Koreans who were on the Japanese side of the war to control Koreans economic and political power there will be trouble."

"The State Dept does not feel this case is one of importance requiring any special attention. It suggests that the War Dept might wish to communicate this view to CINCPAC and to suggest, if agreeable to CINCPAC, that the State Dept will authorize the Embassy to inform the Chinese Foreign Office that through inadvertence the Chinese Government was not consulted in advance with regard to the matter and, therefore, the reported disregard of Chinese regulations was unintentional".

the Commission will act and consider the document after final approval by the Diet but before promulgation or approval by the Emperor, which I assume is essential before the new constitution becomes operative.

Such a solution would in my judgment not do violence to your principles and argument outlined in urad C 59896 that changing the Japanese draft before its approval by the Diet is a departure from the Potsdam Declaration providing for the establishment of a peacefully inclined and responsible government "in accordance with the freely expressed will of the Japanese People."

Although the above action could be initiated by the War Department with SWNCC approval by way of instructing General McCoy to propose FEC change its directive, which action I would not take without your concurrence, I believe that a recommendation along those lines from you to the JCS would be more effective since you speak with so much more authority as the Allied executive agent on the spot.

For your information General McCoy thinks this proposal has merit and would probably be acceptable to the FEC. Will you send me your thoughts in this matter? Since the Diet will meet on 16 May, timing is important. Your estimate of the timetable of events would be most helpful.

FROM : WASHINGTON (ASSISTANT SECRETARY PETERSEN)
TO : CINCPAC (PERSONAL TO MACARTHUR)

I am anxious to be of greatest possible assistance to you in composing your differences with Far Eastern Commission on constitutional question. As war member of SWNCC I have followed policy of supporting you to the maximum. However, the limit of SWNCC jurisdiction on FEC matters is by way of instruction to American representative. I am firmly convinced that General McCoy is doing all he can in difficult circumstances to support you and your policies.

I am in full agreement as is the Secretary with the position you have taken on the constitutional question. I can not conceive how the constitution could be considered a "free expression of Japanese will", if in the midst of the legislative or ratification process it is whisked away to Washington for FEC perusal and approval or disapproval. However, I am equally mindful that under the FEC terms of reference it has the right, at some juncture, to pass on the constitution, and it is highly desirable that we do everything possible consonant with the policies you are following to set the stage for easy Allied approval of the document when the Japanese have met your requirements.

In my search for a solution which might satisfy the Commission and still not interfere with your administration and the policies you are following I have the thought that the Commission's policy sent to you by the Joint Chiefs of Staff in W 82394 should be reopened and the Commission requested to reconsider its statement that: "The Far Eastern Commission must be given an opportunity to pass upon the final draft of the constitution to determine whether it is consistent with the Potsdam Declaration and any other controlling documents before it is finally approved by the Diet and becomes legally valid," and substitute in its stead a provision
