Washington Star, AP Moscow 14 Jun: The Russian press, which has been critical of Gen MacArthur recently, leveled more accusations at the American Occupation Commander in Japan today. A Tass dispatch from Tokyo reporting "persecution" of Japanese workers said trade union members had been unable to get exit visas to attend a meeting of the World Federation of Trade Unions in Italy. . . .

Baltimore Sun, AP Washington 10 Jun: The United States declared today the Japanese now are "completely disarmed" and working to become self supporting as soon as possible. . . . The statement renewed the American contention that Japan is unable to pay further war damages without impeding its recovery. . . . The statement was issued by the State Dept in behalf of the Army and other agencies in reply to criticism of China, the Philippines and other Pacific allies. . . .

Christian Science Monitor Correspondent Gordon Walker 10 Jun, Tokyo: It now has become abundantly clear that any move to change Japan's occupation setup will be vigorously opposed by United States occupation officials here. . . .

This time through a hq spokesman, Gen Douglas MacArthur has denied any knowledge of a contemplated change in the occupation of Japan. He further implies that any such change would not be within the power of the United States Govt but would necessarily rest in the hands of the Far Eastern Commission. . . . This expression of attitude follows closely the reaction to a similar incident shortly after the return to Washington of former Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall. . . . Japanese circles meanwhile frankly are puzzled by SCAP's latest pronouncement. There is no secret that the Japanese would prefer military rule under Gen MacArthur to control by any group which through lack of experience might be less tolerant of Japanese sensibilities. At the same time, they find it difficult to understand Gen MacArthur when he states that the Far Eastern Commission would take precedence over the United States Govt in running occupation policy. . . .

New York Herald Tribune editorial 14 Jun: When Gen MacArthur issued his condemnation of a letter of Lt Gen Kuzma NN Derevyanko he had a first rate case and he made the most of it. . . . In his condemnation of the letter Gen MacArthur not only called its accusation false, which they were, but pointed out that Japanese labor enjoys rights and liberties unknown to the people of the Soviet Union. . . . The marked advantage Gen MacArthur enjoyed in this controversy resulted from the persistent American attempt to give the Japanese the best that Western civilization has to offer. Although the effectiveness of the reforms carried out in Japan under Gen MacArthurs direction cannot be fully determined for years to come, there is no question that these reforms-political, social and economic-were based on excellent motives and were advanced with diligence and enthusiasm.

Washington Star editorial 14 Jun: Gen MacArthurs latest pronouncement is one of the seerest official indictments of Soviet duplicity and chicanery yet issued by a high spokesman for the Western Powers. It is thoroughly warranted by the facts. . . . The Supreme Commander evidently thought it was high time to call the turn on such tactics, which he did in his reply to the Soviet compliant, without mincing his words. . . . Gen MacArthurs riposte is calculated to strike a responsive chord in Japanese public sentiment, which has been naturally embittered by the holding of war prisoners and their bad treatment. It is hard to see how Moscow can get much profit out of Gen Derevyankos maneuver.

Fishing Consv Program in Japan is subj.
Full press release on above subj made 10 Jun is forwarded for your information.

"The Depts of State, Interior and the Army jointly announced today that a consv program for the Japanese Fishing Industry, developed by Gen MacArthur's Hq, is progressing toward eliminating the basis of objections on the part of some nations to the ret of Japanese fishing fleets to some portions of their prewar fishing areas.

2. The program being carried on under Gen MacArthur as the SCAP calls for the Japanese to maintain surveillance over fishing and other aquatic life and to disseminate such info to other interested nations. It also calls for the Japanese to cooperate with other nations in the use of common fishing grds, and to obser the customary work of other nations using the same areas.

3. Japanese fishing since the end of the war has not been authorized outside certain areas, generally in the vicinity of Japan and eastward to the 165th Meridian. Japanese fishing oprs prior to World War II did not always obser internationally accepted practices, particularly regarding consv of resources.

4. The consv of open-ocean and near-shore resources has been a concern of the SCAP orgn from almost the day the occupation began. Progress has already been made in the reorganization and redirection of research for this purpose as well as in making the Japanese conscious of proper fishery consv methods. The US considers it important, however, that Japan acct and intensify this program in order to sup in these flds of activity specific assurance of Japanese wish and intention to participate in world affairs in a responsible manner."

Recent investigation has disclosed that, in requests for civilian personnel for service in occupied areas, the practice has been to use the word "unemployable" as a catch-all phrase to describe various situations.

Recent newspaper stories have emphasized that this is a bad practice because the word is naturally subject to a construction reflecting upon the individuals. In fairness to many people concerning whom this term has been used, it is imperative that Army records should not be left indicating that persons are unemployable when in fact there may be, as there was in the case currently in the newspapers, nothing whatsoever reflecting upon the individual. All persons potentially affected by such practice are entitled to immediate protection of their reputations by correction of the records so that there will be no continuing reflection upon them. You are accordingly directed to have made a prompt examination of all files of such cases, and to have the records corrected by removing the word "unemployable", in appropriate case substituting the word "unavailable". This action is necessary in order that there will be nothing in the files unjustly reflecting upon these individuals. Theater commanders of occupied areas who have requested an individual for civilian duty and have received a reply indicating that the person in question is unemployable, should, if they still desire such persons services, renew the request. An entirely new inquiry will then be made to determine whether such person is suitable, and if so whether his or her services can be obtained.

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 13 Jun: Gen Douglas MacArthur castigated Russia today as "an inciter of disorder and violence in an otherwise orderly Japanese society." This remark was a highlight in a reply by the Supreme Commander Allied Powers to a letter from Lt Gen Kuzma Derevyanko...complaining against police suppression of demonstrations here last month....Gen MacArthur met the Soviet attack on "labor suppression" here with a blast against Russian treatment of Japanese war prisoners....This message was regarded as further evidence that Allied Hq does not intend to let Russia and the Japanese Communists dominate the propaganda picture here, as they have done for so long in the past. Since early this year Gen MacArthur and his aides have been prominent in each Communist attack. They have even managed to meet some of the attacks engineered through whispering campaigns....

New York Herald Tribune Correspondent Allen Raymond, Tokyo 10 Jun: Gen Douglas MacArthur, taking note of press reports from Washington, liberally publicized in Japanese newspapers, that the State Dept is planning civilian control here, issued a statement Friday saying he doubted that any such change was being contemplated....Whatever may be under discussion in Washington, he said would not necessarily involve the Office of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers here, nor would it directly affect the time or circumstances of a peace conference. ...

New York Herald Tribune Correspondent Homer Bigart, Washington 10 Jun: The State Dept denied Friday that a plan was under consideration for its taking over administration of Japan from the Army. "Ultimately" there will be civilian control, but no date has been set, officials said. Meanwhile, the United States rejected protests by China and the Philippines over the American decision to stop Japanese reparations....

Baltimore Sun, Reporter Mark Watson Washington 11 Jun: Current pleas for American aid to the Govts of South Korea and beleaguered Nationalist China again have produced at the capitol insistent requests for a declaration of what America's Far East policy is....On the need for a statement of basic policy-and first of all a determination of one-no disagreement is audible. Only with that determination is it felt that there can be an intelligent second step toward a statement program in Japan. At the same time, various Far East veterans...urge that longrange objectives however important do not necessarily conflict with certain short-range operations, which themselves could have results reaching far into the future.. One such operation might be the South Korea loan which was recommended this week, producing the argument referred to....

New York Herald Tribune Correspondent Allen Raymond, Tokyo 11 Jun: Reports of a possible change in the Allied Command here come at a time when wildcat strikes, such as the one which yesterday tied up suburban railroad lines, inconveniencing almost a million Tokyo commuters, are plaguing the country. Also to be contended with are a rising crime rate, dwindling tax revenues and a sharp drop in exports....Harassed by these untoward events which are seemingly beyond his control, Gen MacArthur still goes to his office for long hours daily, seven days weekly, with the regularity of a metronome. But the actual processes of his govt are hidden carefully for the most part until the time comes for some newspaper release which tells of their "progress."

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 11 Jun: Eight hours after a pereptory order from Gen Douglas MacArthurs Hq that Japans striking railmen must resume their jobs, service had not been restored to normal tonight... It was still too early to tell whether the situation was caused by administrative difficulties in informing the union leaders of the order or by the decision of union locals to defy the govt and the occupation....

Christian Science Monitor Correspondent Gordon Walker 11 Jun, Tokyo: An intensified campaign to secure some sort of binding United States military commitment in South Korea is in the focus, for the moment, of official and unofficial diplomatic maneuvering in this region of the Far East.... Following the pattern in China, however, there is little to indicate that the United States is thinking in terms of any such commitment at this time. American policy toward Korea shows a tendency to avoid any type of involvement which might result either from a North Korean attack across the Thirty Eighth Parallel or an overzealous effort on the part of the South Korean Govt to anticipate such an attack.... The South Korean Govt claim of Russian aid is regarded as little more than a propeganda measure designed to strengthen demands for commensurate United States military aid. American authorities did pay serious attention, however to a border clash which took place in the vicinity of the town of Keesang on May 5....

New York Times Correspondent Ray Falk, Jun 12 (Magazine Section) Tokyo: Most of the news that flows out of Japan concerns top level decisions of the occupation authority, reports on distinguished visitors and such matters known Military Govt "Teams"-the one American institution in Japan in daily contact with the average citizen. The "civil arm of the military" as it is sometimes called, consists of 46 such teams which GHQ has installed throughout the country. Theoretically the teams mission is to supervise, survey and report on Japanese adherence to GHQ directives. Actually the teams deal with-and to a considerable extent control-almost every aspect of Japanese life....(Article goes into detail of the operations of Military Govt "Teams").

At 5 PM EDST 10 June, the following statement was made to press by Mr White (of the Dept of State) on behalf of Mr Webb.

"The press in Japan seems to have misunderstood the purpose of the reply which the Acting Secretary made to a question put to him by a member of the House of Representatives Committee on Foreign Affairs on June 9, in the course of the hearings on the ECA Program for Korea. The question was whether there was any plan in the offing respecting the State Department takeover of administrative control of Japan as it will shortly do in Germany. Mr Webb's reply sought to point out that the problem in Japan was under serious and thoughtful consideration and referred to a discussion he has had as to these problems with Assistant Secretary of the Army Tracy Voorhees, in charge of occupied areas, and to Joseph Dodge, who has just returned from Tokyo where he acted as Financial Adviser to SCAP. These discussions had nothing to do with the so-called takeover of control in Japan by the Dept of State.

"What Mr Webb sought to emphasize was that the problems with which we are faced in Japan were being approached as they had been over many months in Germany in a thoroughly co-operative manner between Departments of State and Army by 'Getting a group of people together to work very hard who are committed in all areas of the Government to solve the problems' rather than by 'Trying to settle details of jurisdictional and legal questions'.

"Implicit in the Acting Secretary's testimony was the fact

June: New York Times correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 9

Premier Shigeru Yoshida said today that, in a sense, Japan was now attending a peace conference. The Prime Minister dampened hopes that a peace treaty would be immediately forthcoming, the hopes that had been rising last week as a result of his cryptic remark that the nation "might expect a great surprise before the end of the summer."...

Washington Star, AP Tokyo 10 June:

A spokesman for Gen MacArthur's Hq expressed doubt today that the State Dept could take over Japan's occupation from the Army without approval from the Far Eastern Commission. "It is not believed here, the statement added, 'that any attempt to do so is contemplated.'" This was an apparent answer to Under-Secretary of State James Webb's testimony Wednesday before the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Mr Webb said, "serious consideration," was being given to a plan for the State Dept to take over from the Army in Japan.... The statement noted that British as well as American troops are included in the occupation force.

New York's Times, AP Seoul 9 June:

President Syngman Rhee said today his Korean Republic "can continue her fight against Communism on her own front regardless of what happens elsewhere in Asia if she receives adequate aid and weapons."...

Special to New York Times Seoul 9 June:

The United Nations Korea Commission today conferred with United States Ambassador John J Muccio, and Brig Gen William L Roberts, Commander of American troops in Korea on details of the withdrawal of United States forces from Korea, now in progress.

New York Times editorial 10 June:

President Truman's request for an appropriation of $150,000,000 for a recovery program for South Korea is sound and modest. We have assumed an obligation in Korea and that obligation should be discharged....

New York Herald Tribune editorial 10 June:

There is need for a clear and bold definition of American policy in Asia. This was demonstrated at the hearing of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on President Truman's request for...economic aid for South Korea. The request may have been reasonable, as there must be both economic reconstruction and economic reform in South Korea unless the people there are to be easy prey for Communism, but members of the House Committee were not prepared to approve it quickly....

American policy in Asia, in the opinion of this newspaper, should be based on wholehearted and open and persistent support of self-govt for the people of Asia, on efforts to persuade the colonial powers there to speed progress toward self-govt, on friendliness for native liberals in politics on economic aid like that proposed for Korea, on technical assistance to increase production in agriculture and industry and to control disease, and on approval of economic reforms of the type of those sponsored by the United States in the rural areas of Japan. Guns can be given to men who have willingness and capacity to fight the Reds, but the initial emphasis should be on economic, political and social advance....

Radio commentator Felix Morley, NBC 9 May:...

If Southern Korea goes Communist, Japan is also likely to follow suit, and that possibility has our State Dept pretty jittery right now. It would be a sorry sequel to our sacrifice in the Far East to have Japan end up as a Soviet Republic....

We can now give you some unpublished information. The most important Chinese Communist is a man of whom you perhaps never heard. His name is Li Li San. This man, Li, was trained and spent 14 years in Moscow... Li is running things behind the scenes...

Three Star Extra learns from Chinese sources that the Russians now have a couple of divisions of crack Siberian troops in Manchuria disguised as railway guards. They are under orders of Li...and they are ready to move into Korea at any time. With Northern Korea already a Soviet state it's going to be difficult to keep Southern Korea from going Communist too-and then on the Kremlin timetable comes Japan. That's why President Truman is asking Congress for an emergency appropriation...to finance Southern Korea for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

It's the first attempt to expand the Marshall Plan to Asia.

Foreign State Dept statement on reparations will be released to press 1530 hours EDT, 10 June 49:

"The US Govt announced on May 12 in a statement read by Gen McCoy to the FEC that it had decided to terminate removal of reparations from Japan under the Adv Trf Program instituted by US Interim Directive on 4 Apr 1947;

To withdraw its proposal of 6 Nov 1947, on the div of Japanese reparations shares;

To take no further action under its interim directive powers to make possible add reparation removals from Japan;

To submit new policy proposals to the FEC which would have the effect, if adopted, of precluding further industrial reparations removals from Japan during the occupation.

"On May 19 and 26 the Philippine and Chinese representatives on the FEC read to the Com and released to the press statements disagreement with the US pos. These statements appear to this govt to be based on a number of serious misconceptions both as to US policies toward Japan and the fundamental nature of the Japanese problem. Before exam the specific points advd by the Philippine and Chinese representatives, it is desired to clarify beyond and ques doubt the considerations underlying the US pos announced on May 12.

"Because of its leading role in the war against Japan and relatively stronger mil and econ pos at the close of the conflict, the US has from the outset assumed a primary role in the occupation of Japan. Its policies and actions in this capacity have been determined not by considerations of sp advantage but on behalf of and for the benefit of all Far Eastern and other concerned nations. It early recognized that the programs of Democratization and reform prescribed by the FEC for Japan could succeed only in a tolerable econ environment, and for nearly 4 years has assumed unaided the responsibility of provg assistance to Japan to make such an environment possible, at a cost to this govt of over a billion dollars. The US has naturally been reluctant to assume this burden, not merely because the American taxpayer is already carrying a heavy load, but also because there is a limit to US resources. Funds spent in Japan are unavailable for other vital purposes at home and aboad. It has nevertheless been willing to prov this aid so as to make possible the success of the FEC programs and basic policy objectives, on which the emergence of a peacefully inclined and responsible Japan depends. The aid has been given as a matter of hard necessity in the interest of all peace loving nations.

"Clearly, however, the US cannot indefinitely bear the burden of Japan's spt. It must therefore assist the reattainment by Japan of a self-sustaining econ at the earliest possible time. Further reparations fr the deficit Japanese econ would obviously be inconsistent with this objective. Nor, are further reparations for purposes of demilitarization and disarmament. Japan has been completely disarmed and the US is determined that its war-making capacity shall not be permitted to re-emerge. In those rare instances where Japan, in its efforts to spt a population 15,000,000 larger than pre-war, cannot put to productive use for peaceful purposes facilities previously used in the war effort not already destroyed as specialized war equip, it is the US view that the facilities should at the aprod time be scrapped.

"The US position announced by Gen McCoy on May 12 derived fr these fundamental considerations and stands on its merits as a nec stp for the achievement of basic Allied policy objectives in Japan.

"Turning to the Philippine and Chinese representatives specific points, there is no conflict between the US pos and the Potsdam Declaration. Para 11 of the declaration provs that 'Japan shall be permitted to maintain such industries as will sustain her economy and permit the exaction of just reparations in kind, but not those which would enable her to rearm for war'. Ref is first to the needs of a self-supporting Jap economy, and second to reparations. This order of priority is repeated and emphasized in the FEC reparations decisions. Since the Japanese economy, today is a heavily deficit economy, and since the exaction of further reparations would increase that deficit and defer the achievement of self-spt, the US is fully consonant with the above-quoted Potsdam prov and with the pertinent provs of the FEC basic post-surr policy for Japan, the clear intent of which is that reparations shall be restricted to resources surplus to Japan's peaceful needs.

"The claim that the US pos is incompatible with the FEC interim removals and other FEC reparations decisions in the sense that the pos in any way contravenes these decisions, is equally unfounded. The FEC decisions have been nullified not by any action to the US but by the failure of the FEC, notwithstanding every assistance and encouragement by the US, to adopt a sch of reparations shares which would give the decisions practical effect. The Philippine representative charges the US with impatience in proposing that the reparations acct now be closed. One may wonder, as we approach the end of the fourth year of the occupation, how long the US, bearing the burden of the inadequacies of Japanese economic revival, was expected to wait before actg to remove the impediment which the reparations issue has interposed to the attainment of Japanese self-spt.

"No conflict is perceived between the US reparations pos and effective and cont Japanese disarmament and demilitarization. On the contrary, this pos accords with the only course offering real hope of elimination of the Japanese mil threat. Japan, it was earlier pointed out, has been completely disarmed. It should be apparent to all Far Eastern nations that Japan faces most difficult in developing its agriculture, industry and trade to a point where they can spt its population, and that if Japan again threatens the peace of the Far East it will in all probability be because it failed in that objective rather than because it was permitted to retain existing industrial plants for peaceful, productive purposes.

"The assertion by the Philippine and Chinese representatives that the US reparations pos indicates that the US feels greater concern for the welfare of its late enemy than for the just reparations claims of its allies could arise only from a profound misunderstanding of US desires and intention. As earlier stated, US policies and actions in Japan have been dictated by hard necessity to permit achievement of the basic FEC policy objectives for Japan. These objectives cannot be accomplished by permitting the Japanese to starve or by depriving them of industrial equip needed for their peaceful economy. The US must point out that the Allies have assumed a joint responsibility in their common interest in Japan and must bear their proportionate measure of sacrifice if the agreed and vital end of a peaceful, Democratic and self-supporting Japan is to be attained.

"The charge that the Japanese under the direction of the former Zaibatsu Class are deliberately sabotaging economic recovery is not borne out by reports from The Supreme Comdr or from other competent observers in Japan. There are of course elements in Japan which seek to take advantage of their country's plight for their own benefit. All reliable evidence indicates, however, that the Japanese Govt and the Japanese people as a whole desire to regain a self-sustaining status at the earliest possible time. The Philippine representative's statement, 'help themselves', before a solution is sought through Allied aid that the Japanese must first abstention from further reparations ignores the fact the US in Dec, 1948, directed the institution of an Economic Stabilization Program to this very end, which is now being vigorously pursued in Japan. If there are any measures to enable the Japanese better to help themselves which are not being pressed in Japan under this program the US Govt is unaware of them.

"The US repudiates the contention of the Philippine representative that the US Govt implicitly undertook in the Philippine Rehabilitation Act of 1946 to act as agent for the Philippines to collect reparations from Japan at least to the extent of the balance of Philippine war damage claims not met by the $520,000,000 appropriated for the Philippines under the act. The Philippine Rehabilitation Act was, as its name implies, designed to promote the early rehabilitation of the Philippine Islands' economy, and not to provide general compensation of Philippine war damage. It did not in any sense purport to settle, or to prescribe machinery for settlement, of Philippine reparations claims against Japan. It does not prov, nor do its terms and prov imply, that the US should claim reparations fr Japan on acct of war damage to Philippine prop. To avoid any possibility of misunderstanding on this point the US Govt instructed its ambassador at Manila on 1 Nov 1946, to inform the Philippine Govt that the US would not claim reparations for Philippine war damages or losses. At the same time, the act does not in any way limit the auth of the Philippine Govt to claim reparations. The fact that the Philippine Govt has fr the outset advd its own reparations claims in the FEC, and has requested and recd its own percentage share of reparations in all shares, proposals considered by the com, would indicate that the Philippine Govt has never previously had any doubts as to its right and responsibility to submit its own reparation claims.

"It is noteworthy that Sec 106 (B) (1) of the Rehabilitation Act provs that the US shall reimburse itself for outlays under Titles 1 and 3 of act solely out of money or bullion recd by the US fr Japan for Philippine reparations. Since it was fully recognized at the time of passage of the act that Japanese reparations would consist in major part of capital equip, and only in very small degree of money or bullion, this fact is a further indication that the US never expected reimbursement fr reparations of the $520,000,000 expenditure authd under the act, and has never considered itself in the role of agent for the collection of reparations for the Philippines.

"The Philippine representative in his statement of May 26 quoted a press rpt of May 24 alleging the formation of a 'Japanese National Defense Force' to be under 'vigorous study' in Wash. On the same day, May 24, a spokesman of the Dept of State announced at a news conf that, 'There is absolutely no intention of forming or allowing the formation of national defense force for Japan. The press rpt is quite obviously a speculative story based on the well known fact that the present police force in Japan is inadequate for the ordinary internal police tasks of the country'.

"The Govt of the US trusts that this statement will rec the careful consideration of the Philippine and Chinese Govts and peoples and will contribute to a more accurate understanding by these nation of the pos of this govt as announced on

New York Times Correspondent William S White, Washington 8 June: The administrations proposed $150,000,000 recovery Program for South Korea, as a "terribly important" Democratic outpost in Asia, was sharply challenged today by Republican critics in it's first test in congress. Several Republican members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, before which acting Sec of State James E Webb opened the case for the program, responded with angry criticism of the entire Far Eastern Policy of the United States.... Mr Webb made it plain however that "substantial quantities" of military equipment and a "substantial" American Military Advisory Group would be left behind to aid the Koreans. The State Dept announced coincidentally that Brig Gen William L Roberts would head this Group, which will train South Korean Troops after the American Force has gone. The Dept likewise issued a statement stressing the "particularly deep and sympathetic concern" of the United States "for the welfare of the Republic of Korea."

New York News Reporter Paul Healy, Washington 8 June: The State Dept told the House Foreign Affairs Committee today that the United States must prevent the economic collapse of South Korea or let it fall and easy prey to Communist controlled

New York Times Correspondent William S White, Washington 8 June: The administrations proposed $150,000,000 recovery Program for South Korea, as a "terribly important" Democratic outpost in Asia, was sharply challenged today by Republican critics in it's first test in congress. Several Republican members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, before which acting Sec of State James E Webb opened the case for the program, responded with angry criticism of the entire Far Eastern Policy of the United States.... Mr Webb made it plain however that "substantial quantities" of military equipment and a "substantial" American Military Advisory Group would be left behind to aid the Koreans. The State Dept announced coincidentally that Brig Gen William L Roberts would head this Group, which will train South Korean Troops after the American Force has gone. The Dept likewise issued a statement stressing the "particularly deep and sympathetic concern" of the United States "for the welfare of the Republic of Korea."

New York News Reporter Paul Healy, Washington 8 June: The State Dept told the House Foreign Affairs Committee today that the United States must prevent the economic collapse of South Korea or let it fall and easy prey to Communist controlled

North Korea. . . . Asked when the State Dept would succeed the Army in directing the Korean Occupation, Webb said he did not know. Later the State Dept, clarifying a statement by Truman yesterday, explained that our occupation troops will be withdrawn from Korea "soon."

Chicago Tribune, AP Washington 8 June: Paul G Hoffman, Foreign Aid Administrator, today proposed a 3 year "little Marshall plan" for the infant Republic of Korea to make that nation a road block to Communism in the Western Pacific. In testimony before The House Foreign Affairs Committee on President Truman's request for $150,000,000 in Korean Recovery Aid for the year starting July 1, Hoffman said, "it simply makes no sense to adopt a relief program." The ECA Chief described the Korean Republic as "a key outpost of Democracy in the Far East" and declared his belief that the ECA Program "is the only economic answer to the Republic's problems." . . .

Radio Commentator Richard Hottelet, CBS 8 June: . . . The President and the Act Sec of State have now called attention to another wise inconspicuous portion of the Cold War. They have asked for $150,000,000 to provide the Govt of South Korea with economic help. Compared with other problems Korea sounds like the piccolo in the international discord. It's shrill but small . . . left on it's own the Democratic Govt does not possess the economic strength to survive. If it falls the last free foothold in that part of Asia goes with it and the loss of Western face is likely to have an even more important effect in China and Japan. The question before Congress now would hardly seem to be whether American can afford. . . to support Southern Korea, but rather it can afford not to. . . .

"Over the years, the 17th Infantry-its roots deep in American history-has forged a great tradition with courage and fidelity. You, the men of this famous regiment, can well be proud of belonging to it. In your hands is the future of one of the finest battle histories.

"It is not enough that you preserve the old glories, you must carry them forward. New men bring a new life, a new outlook, and new horizons to any organization. You bring these qualities to the 17th, and in turn you have assumed a challenging obligation to move forward.

"By welding the flexible spirit of progress to the finest of the old traditions you can face the future, squarely and with confidence, for such a combination will produce a unit which cannot be surpassed. Tomorrow's 17th Infantry will be what you make it today-keen or dull, capable or indifferent, just or selfish, respected or scorned. It is up to you and I am sure you will do the job well.

"My congratulations to the men of the 17th Infantry-a proud regiment in a proud division on its organization day.
Signed General Omar N Bradley, Chief of Staff."

New York Times reporter Anthony Leviero, Wash 7 June:
Pres Truman proposed today a little Marshall Plan for the new Republic in Southern Korea, requesting Congress to appropriate $150,000,000 to aid that country's recovery for a year . . .
Meanwhile, it was learned in high administration quarters that a new policy relating to China is evolving, but slowly, because of the many complications . . . In a special message to Congress, the president stated that the Republic in Southern Korea was not only a bulwark of democracy against the Russian sponsored Communists in Northern Korea but was also "A beacon to the people of Northern Asia in resisting the control of the Communist forces which have over run them." Actually the $150,000,000 he proposed was little more than the Army has been expending for relief in that country. . . . Ten per cent of the money, this country has agreed, could be used for munitions and equipment for the Army and gendarmery being trained by an American mission. This country, it was said, will definitely withdraw all of her troops, now numbering about 5,000 by Jul 1, unless an attack in force was made by the so called North Korean People's Army. . . .

Philadelphia Bulletin, AP Manila 7 Jun: The US is waging a new goodwill campaign in the Philippines. The newly arrived US Ambassador, Myron M Cowen, has ripped into a veil of misunderstandings which developed during the one year absence of any top ranking American envoy in Manila. Criticism of the US, which had gone unanswered for lack of any appropriate voice, now are getting prompt replies. The timing is such that the American campaign coincides with current Philippine accusations that the US is coddling Japan and neglecting wartime dependents and allies in the Philippines. Cowen . . . has stressed these points . . . The US will not attempt to influence the Philippines presidential election, set for next Nov. Close observers realize that American prestige could take a sharp dip if Jose P Laurel should win the presidency. . . . Then Japanese collaboration issue is fading into the background, and easing of the US policy toward Japan has strengthened Laurel

New York Times, Seoul 6 Jun: President Syngman Rhee, yielding to heavy pressure from the National Assembly, today dismissed the only woman member of the Cabinet, Miss Louise Yin, Minister of Commerce and Industry, as well as Justice Minister Lee. . . . Influential govt quarters contended that Mr Lee had failed to press the prosecution of Communists and sympathizers.

Chicago Tribune, AP Tokyo 7 Jun: Formosans in Japan today appealed for the liberation of their homeland from the Chinese. The plea was made by the Formosan League for Re-emancipation. It claims to have 20,000 members in Japan and to represent the majority of Formosan people. . . . The appeal was addressed to "All peace loving nations" and the United Nations. . . .

Chicago Tribune correspondent Walter Simmons, Tokyo Jun 7: How a Chicagoan's patriotic action was defeated by the combined red tape of the US Army and the Japanese Govt was disclosed by an investigation today. The story goes back to Apr 47, when Willard Townsend, Negro President of the CIO United Transport Service Employees Union visited Japan as the American member of a four nation delegation of the World Federation of Trade Unions. . . . In a conference with Gen MacArthur, Townsend said he would be willing to write a trade union manual adapted to Japanese conditions. MacArthur, impressed by Townsend's views, agreed. Townsend went home and wrote the first draft of the book Then had the book translated into Japanese and had 3,000 copies printed at his own expense. These were shipped from Chicago last Sept addressed to Gen MacArthur. . . . Today the Army's Labor Division was able to locate neither a copy of the hand-book nor a translation in its files. . . . Prolonged search finally located the books-covered with dust and piled in a forgotten corner

New York Times, Tokyo 5 Jun: With little of the usual double talk, the govt is going to make a deliberate attempt to choose "Troublemakers" for dismissal when pruning 172,000 employees from its top heavy payroll.... Because Mr Masuda made his remarks following an interview with Blaine Hoover, Chief of the Occupation's Civil Service Division, it is presumed that the anti-communist campaign in the firings will enjoy at least Gen Douglas MacArthur's tacit approval....

New York Times correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 3 Jun: Premier Shigeru Yoshida gave the cabinet today a new 10 point policy program.... Another all out labor offensive is due within July or August, Labor Minister Masafumi Suzuki told the cabinet meeting.... Premier Yoshida indicated he would call a special September Diet session. Last month he said he planned a special session at the end of the summer for the purpose of translating into legislation the main points contained in the tax revision program of Carl S Shoup, Columbia University Professor now acting as Gen Douglas MacArthur's Chief Tax Advisor.

Baltimore Sun, AP Seoul 4 Jun: The Korean Republic's Chief of Staff said today he is ready to use guns to clear the Ongjin Peninsula of invading border constabulary men from Communist North Korea....

New York Times Editorial 5 Jun: Conscientious Americans cannot be satisfied or pleased over the juxtaposition of two items in the recent news. At one point is the expression of dismay and reproach by China and the Philippines that the United States should have unilaterally decreed an end to the idea of reparations from Japan. At the same time there is the declaration of Gen MacArthur that Japan has made a greater post war economic comeback, largely by her own efforts, than many European Nations, that Japanese production out-put has gained 100% in two years and that Japanese exports for that period are about to be quadrupled. The Philippine bill of damage against Japan is very real and eminently just; the Philippine fear of a resurgent Japan is likewise realistic and justifiable.... It may be that the long term requirements of the situation will dictate a policy of no further specific reparations from Japan. If that is true then some fair compensatory formula must be evolved for the benefit of those who suffered depredation, and simple justice would see that it be at the expense of the Japanese. Likewise those who have endured Japanese conquest are entitled to the firm reassurance that it will not recur. Those two objectives have not thus far been reached. We have discarded the idea of a "punitive" peace, but that does not mean that we have likewise discarded the concept of established obligations....

New York Times, AP 5 Jun: Censorship still rules the news you read from many sections of the world. The degree of restraint varies.... Japan-there is no censorship of foreign correspondents dispatches, and only post censorship of newspapers and books is exercised by occupation authorities. Editors of two Japanese papers were fined for gross inaccuracy, and some others have been warned on specific stories. Japanese editors are still careful in their effort to avoid publishing material they think might offend occupation authorities, the Imperial Court or influential Japanese political circles.... Korea-there is no censorship of foreign correspondents dispatches in American occupied Southern Korea. There is an informal censorship of the domestic press, not provided by the constitution. The director of public information has notified all newspapers several times to withhold publications of stories on attempts to incite riots or, assassinations until full information was obtained....

Reurad June Z 11998. Subj is tvl of Japanese stus to US sptd fr GARIOA funds your understanding is correct that $234,000 of Fisc Year 50 GARIOA funds may be obligated same as $36,835 fr Fisc Year 49 fund to IIE. However, believe you should auth trf to IIE of only $200,000 at first, resg $34,000 for expenses incidental to tvl and entry ZI and later allocation. Your further understanding is correct that funds once obligated may be disbd by the accepting agency until spent for purpose intended, beyond fisc year of appn. For planning purposes you may count on placing at least 116 Japanese stus and probably more, depending upon generosity of American colleges in offering scholarships. When IIE has papers of SCAP and applicants and begins seeking scholarships with specific indivs in mind, probable acpt can be better determined. In fall term of 49 IIE can probably place 50 undergraduate stus in small liberal arts colleges but almost none now in courses req laboratory facilities, and if all expenses are met fr GARIOA funds or applicants have self obtained scholarships as indicated ourad

Washington Star, AP Seoul 3 June: A press dispatch said today that border constabulary from Communist North Korea had invaded Ongjin Peninsula, about 8 miles north east of Seoul.... The press account said the northerners had made 3 attacks in the last two weeks, seized five police boxes, and now occupy high hills just south of the border.... A reliable source said aerial observation gave no indication that soldiers of the Communist north were backing the border constabulary with reinforcements. American advisers to the Korean Army viewed the incidents as further northern probing of the border.

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane Tokyo 2 June, Japan's economic problem no longer is inflation but deflation, Finance Minister Hayate Ideda told the press at Hiroshima today. He indicated that measures were being prepared to cope with the money shortage induced by the past year's economic program....

Chicago Sun Times 1 June, UP Tokyo: Food production is the most pressing single problem in Japan, one of Gen MacArthur's key advisors told the United Press. "This is a nation of so many people on so little land," said Lt Col Hubert G Schenck, Chief of Gen MacArthur's Natural Resources Section.... Schenck said he believed any increase in Japanese domestic food production would be of interest to the American taxpayers, since they now paying millions of dollars a year to feed the country....

Chicago Tribune Editorial 2 June: Among all of the follies of occupation policy laid down in Washington, the denazification program for Germany and the purge of alleged Japanese militarists rank high in discouraging the rebuilding of the 2 countries. ... Now, at last, there is some prospect that this senseless system of depriving the defeated country of some of its best brains is on the way out. A purge rescreening board is at work reconsidering cases. The Govt Section of Gen MacArthur's occupation has, in general, given favorable consideration to appeals....

Washington Star 2 June, Seoul AP: The National Assembly today demanded the resignation of President Syngman Rhee's Cabinet.... Dr Rhee had no comment on the Assembly action today. The Cabinet is responsible only to him.

New York Herald Tribune correspondent Allen Raymond, 1 June Tokyo: Japan's fifth post war Diet which adjourned last midnight, was hailed by Premier Shigeru Yoshida in a radio address tonight as having balanced the national budget for the first time since the surrender and reformed the civil service by the discharge of 400,000 useless employees.... The truth is that the ban on borrowings by local govts which was insisted on by Gen Douglas MacArthur's Financial Adviser, Joseph M Dodge, has brought a wave of resignations by local officials, has imperiled the whole concept of local autonomy as a check on the national govt and has temporarily halted the school reforms which have been part of the American program to democratize Japan. Almost 3,000 provincial, city and village officials have resigned since January, according to conflicting figures given by the Japanese press and American Military Govt officers. The principal cause of the resignations is criticism of taxpayers because of the breakdown of the school system and the inability of local police forces to cope with crime. It is generally recognized by sober minded Japanese that the American Army is the real police force in Japan today....

Philadelphia Bulletin correspondent Daniel A Poling
1 June: I was in Tokyo when Emperor Hirohito celebrated his 48th birthday. Thousands of people gathered at the Palace entrance but it was not the crowd of prewar years. He is no longer god-symbolically or otherwise. But he is something in his own right-a free man. Gen MacArthur said to me: "Of all Japanese the emperor is the most liberated-and I think he likes it." Gen MacArthur believes that this little man who looks out through heavy lensed glasses is absolutely sincere in his desire for peace.... Gen MacArthur does not believe that either the emperor or the Japanese people ever regarded this little man as "god." When I asked why then his public annunciation of his divinity, the General smiled and replied in effect that it was to close the record and to clear the matter for the rest of the world....

New York Herald Tribune Correspondent Allen Raymond, Seoul 29 June: The Republic of South Korea was officially cleared of American troops today when about 1500 officers and men and a few Dept of Army Civilians sailed out of Inchon Harbor. . . . under the eyes of the United Nations Commission on Korea. . . . The situation here is that plans have been perfected for the swift evacuation of every American by air to Japan in case of an emergency. Yet the morale of the American Mission here is higher than it has been in the last 2 years. Not since the liberation in September 45 have the Americans on the spot viewed the situation so hopefully. In a speech to the departing troops. . . . Brig Gen William L Roberts, who remains as head of the American Military Mission, voiced the sentiments of the American Command here "you are going home, he said, because you are no longer of any value here. There are too few of you. You are going back to where we can call upon you when you are needed and where you will be of value. We don't want to lose you here."

Philadelphia Bulletin, AP Washington 29 June: State Dept officials said today that Russia is pushing an active, calculated campaign to Communize Japan from within. . . . This view of Russian aims reflecting those of MacArthur's Hqs, was outlined to a reporter after congress received a gloomy United States Army report on current prospects for Japanese recovery. . . .

given to the Republic of Korea the better armed Communist forces in North Korea will overrun the Republic and eventually take over the entire country. This prediction was made yesterday by Mrs Geraldine Fitch. . . Mrs Fitch, who arrived in New York Tuesday after spending 2 years in South Korea, warned that if this nation permitted "all Asia to fall to the Communists" then it would again find it necessary to fight back from "the last island" as it did in World War II. . . .

New York Times Correspondent Richard J Johnston, Seoul 29 June: The United Nations Korean Commission tonight appealed to the people of Communist controlled North Korea to help the United Nations body penetrate the Soviet supported Iron Curtain across the 38th Parallel. . . .

New York Times Correspondent Lindesay Parrott, Tokyo 29 June: Japanese Govt officials reported tonight that increasing attempts were being made to sabotage railroad transportation following a decision of the Govt Railway Workers Unions to use forces if necessary to block the proposed dismissal of "surplus" operating employes. . . .

New York Times, AP Washington 29 June: Tracy S Voorhees, Asst Sec of the Army, told senators today that the occupation of Japan would continue "for a long time." He made it clear that the Army did not expect any progress toward a peace treaty for Japan in the near future. . . .

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 29 June: Occupation officials moved today to strengthen the hand of the Japanese Govt in its drive against student political activity. . . . Today this areas Regional Civil Affairs Hqs. . . came to the aid of Japanese authorities. . . . the new "suggestion" from the occupation goes far beyond this, implicitly authorizing the discharge of teachers and students who engage in political activity. . . .

Philadelphia Bulletin Editorial 30 June: The first Russian held Japanese prisoners to return home in many months were not given a particularly warm welcome. . . . Gen MacArthur has kept Communism within bounds, but economic conditions have been such as to enable the party to remain a threat. The addition of such a large number of militants, providing they stay that way could create trouble. Conceivably, it could be a strong factor in prolonging the occupation; for one thing this country has tried hard to do is to keep Japan out of Communist hands.

New York Times correspondent Richard J H Johnston, Seoul
28 May: US Army Forces will be out of Korea by the end of July, according to the highest US authorities here.... The Army is moving swiftly and quietly to turn over the most of its supplies to the Korean Republic and transfer its 75 hundred men and officers to Japan, Hawaii and the United States.... Informed United States military sources state that there is small likelihood that a formal announcement of the withdrawal process will be made by United States authorities here.... With the State Department now in complete control of United States affairs in Korea the Army is ending nearly 4 years occupation of Southern Korea...

New York Times correspondent Burton Crane, 29 May Tokyo:
Japan's new constitution, written in English by Gen Douglas MacArthur's occupation hqs and then translated into Japanese, is beginning to strain at the seams. Already some anomalies and contradictions have become evident and the cabinet is considering forming a Joint Diet committee to consider necessary amendments....

New York Herald Tribune correspondent Allen Raymond, Nagasaki 26 May: Deprived of an adequate coast guard, Japan is relying today on the United States Army and Navy to do the normal policing of its coastal waters. A whole division of United States Navy destroyers and Army crash boats is being used in futile efforts to cope with the centuries old smuggling between the Japanese Islands and the Asiatic mainland. The American ships do not catch many smugglers....

Chicago Tribune Editorial 30 May: The Army has envolved a WPA plan for excess brass by which at least 40% of American civilian officials serving in the Japanese occupation will be replaced before the end of the year by Army officers, principally those relieved from European duty. These officers can hardly be of very imposing quality, otherwise it would not have been so easy to dispense with their services in the occupation of Germany. But the Army well knows that it is a lush existence living off a defted who can object; so occupation assignments are at a premium, and Japan offers a change of scenery. This program will further hamper the work of Gen MacArthur's occupation, Commander in Japan. He will have forced upon him a lot of misfits who have very little understanding of the complicated economic and social problems which plague Japan.... The conclusion is that the American public is being afflicted by the Army occupation to quite as great a degree as are the Japanese people.

Radio Commentator Drew Pearson, ABC 29 May: Paris exclusive. The Western Powers have secretly agreed to call a peace conference for Japan. This conference is due to be held in Washington some time in October. Gen MacArthur has been urging this conference for 2 years on the grounds that American troops should get out of Japan. Just 2 days before Acheson left for Paris MacArthur sent him a long memo suggesting that Japan be discussed at Paris.... If and when that peace conference takes place I predict that the chief American delegate will be Douglas MacArthur after which he will retire to private life.

Radio Commentator Walter Winchell, ABC 29 May: Tokyo: Gen MacArthur's current headache is that the Japanese Kamikaze Suicide Corps have joined the Communist Party. All rank militarists such as the Nazi like Black Dragon Society are now seeking alliance with the hammer and sickle for the day when Nagasaki is avenged.

Radio Commentator H Kaltenborn, NBC 27 May: American Vice Admiral Badger said today that the United States Navy probably would not use Formosa as a Naval base, even if the Chinese Nationalists offered it. The Commander of the United States Naval Forces in the Southwest Pacific told a US conference, "We don't need Formosa, the fleet can maintain itself at sea as it did during the war." That is true, but Gen MacArthur once told me that the islands off the coast of China represent the new American frontier in the Pacific. In the hands of an enemy, Formosa would be worth a good part of our Navy. For some reason, our Army commanders in the Far East have been more far sighted on the Pacific situation than the leaders of our Navy.

Radio Commentator Burton Crane, CBS from Tokyo 30 May:
The time is rapidly approaching when there must be a news showdown between Gen MacArthur's occupation and the Japanese labor movement. Strikes are beginning to spring up everywhere In spite of clever phrases, used to explain them away, they really strike against occupation.... Those who have been watching the situation believe that Gen MacArthur must either ease up on his austerity program for Japanese recovery or meet this attack by labor....

subj "disposition of tech sv excess prop" and ourads WX 92095 dtd 5 Nov 48 and W 86606 dtd 4 Apr 49 basis of reduced screening period on this prop to 45 days was that lists need not be submitted to COFENGRS as rqmts of that tech sv would be met by your compliance with that portion of WX 92095 which eliminates from prtg items incd in COFENGRS lists of items to be returned to ZI.

Consequently WX 86606 directed you submit lists dir to Surplus Materials Procurement Section (DA SMPS). Contrary to these instrs your ltr 21 Apr was addressed to COFENGRS recd 7 May. Upon cursory insp of lists by COFENGRS many items were found which are incd in lists of items to be ret'd to ZI. This contrary to pertinent instrs contained in WX 92095 referred to above. This necessitated COFENGRS making compl screening of lists with result lists not available to SMPS for screening screening preclude a disposition date of 5 June 49.
