Pvt Brown John R. by Arthur H. Graff

May 7 Was with B when came out of Navy Communication along 5:30 m near landing
----- Brown was about 3 men in back of me. We stood with our hands up, & the Japs took out some men about 3 or 5 men. They took out Pvt Brown with them.
That was lost I saw him. This Japs marched us to Mal into Tunnel where we slept outside at night. The men stood there under guard. On May 8, about 15 of us were chosen to go on a burying detail. We got to end of landing on the South road. Between landing field & south road. We saw Pvt Brown about 10 am was sitting down with legs out & hand ~~and~~ behind around a ----/ His head was to the left. He was dead. Five of us were picked to bury him. I looked at him.
He had a Hula girl tatoed on his upper right arm with palm tree. ~~His head was~~ Body was ok. His head was badly swollen, his face was masked & bruised had open cuts around as if by bayonet. I could'nt tell if he had been shot - but his face looked mashed up as if hit by rifle but & bayonet. He had on a new pair of G. I. shoes. He wore CD Cotton slacks. Did not have on a shirt or hat. He was dressed just as he was pulled out of line. His face was battered beyond recognition. I recognized him by his build, his clothes & the particular tatoo mark and general color & confirmation of his body.

Saturday-15 April Ward 7 Hosp.

Dear Elvin:

I tackled Strand to-day to be sure that I come to Group II but he tells me that since my last stools are negative (3 of them) I must go to Group I- So I reckon that's that! I likewise asked to go to duty too so I'm coming up "cured" and as full duty status. Strand asked me when I want to come and I told him next Tuesday.

Will you please be so kind as to tell Sgt Fillyaw that I'll come Tuesday so perhaps he'll also speak a word to Capt. Gribben. I believe that's his name, tho' I seem to have lost it.

Elvin do you know Wade Cotteran and where I can send him a note- to what barracks and group? I thought that maybe I could get him to cash a check for a few pesos. I'd like to get hold of about $25.00 to square up a few little debts here. If you know where he is will you please let me know.

I'm keeping in mind the hoe that you and Huggerty need. If I can get you one I will have to be drawn and turned in somewhere.

Come down if you can between now and then.

Best to you
