I am sick of Tartar and Mogol
 I am tired of dog & Malay

I dislike their methods of barter and the prices were asked to pay Enough to unfreeze chicken and milk that comes in a can And water is just not hot as they that may be a lesson to man

I am tired of fish and rice all mingled with highly spiced

I am tired of bathing in Lard and washing with the hot soap

I've had enough of it a time mosquitos all over and flies

I'm tired of tropical diseases and sun that bakes your skin

I'm sick of parasites, tapeworms and the clouds that hang around of seeing the same old face in the streets, hotels & clubs of having to go to the movies seeing pictures that were all

Wagner's thousand year old or you and have you with a tropical cat

I can't go pleasure boat drifting the liquor soaked car on hill

I'm tired with continuously hearing the drum when people will sail I'm always kept up to murder every time I go out in a car with drivers of cabs & taxis whose minds are far below par I find capitalism has wilted I've lost all desire for fame
