Action. Rescue of a Japanese child drowning place Myittha in W.P. Feb 2nd 1945

Jan 26th

Details On or about Feb 2 1945. While working ~~has been~~ on the dockside ~~around the barge~~ one of the Japanese girls who had been playing on the Barge Deck slipped and fell overboard. Walker noticed this and without a moment's hesitation dove into the river fully clothed thereby rescuing the girl. This courageous action of the part of Pte Walker deserves high praise

O R D E R

SUBJECT: FIRE FIGHTING PRECAUTIONS

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

The following procedures will be observed when the Fire Alarm Warning is sounded or fire is discovered in the Camp.

All prisoners of war will strictly comply with all details of these Fire Fighting Procedures.

2. PROMPT ACTION ON DISCOVERY OF FIRE.

The persons first discovering Fire in the Camp will promptly give the Alarm by calling out "FIRE" several times in a loud and clear voice. This will be followed by calling out the location in a similar manner. All other persons hearing the Alarm will immediately pass the word along.

It must be clearly understood by all P.O.W. that, on the outbreak of Fire, it is the Duty of those in the immediate vicinity of the fire to take steps to put it out irrespective of the particular task assigned to individuals under these precautionary regulations.

3. CARE OF FIRE BUCKETS/FIRE EXTINGUISHERS, etc.

Fire Buckets, Fire Extinguishers, Fire Swats, Fire Mats or Water Tubs on no account must be used for any other purpose than Fire Fighting. All the above equipment must be clearly marked with the location or Barrack to which it belongs and on no account must be moved from its allotted position except for Fire Fighting.

4. PROCEDURE TO BE OBSERVED AT NIGHT OR WHEN WORKING PARTIES ARE IN CAMP.

PROCEDURE; The following procedure will be observed when the Fire Alarm Warning is sounded, at night or when the working parties are in camp.

4(a) The Senior P.O.W. Officer will proceed immediately to the Camp Supervising Office. He will report the present strength of the Camp and the number of the patients and then await orders.

4(b) Special Groups as stated below will proceed immediately to their respective group rendezvous. Group Leaders will parade their party and report to the Group Supervising Officer when all are present; then stand by for orders. No action (other than as previously noted under Paragraph 2 above: "Prompt Action On Discovery of Fire") must be taken by groups except on the order of the Supervising Officer in command of the group.
