Nelson, Huslock D. Maj. Provisional Tank Group.

In bad shape (physical and mental strain) reached Camp O'Donnell about April 18, 1942. His baggage was searched and his personal baggage was taken out of the formation. This was the last that was seen of Maj. Nelson. His baggage was turned over to American Headquarters some time later. (Americans were executed for having in their possession any Japanese article. It is believed that the Maj. had a Jap battle flag or some other trophy in his baggage which was found in the search at O'Donnell).

~~Sgt. White at Bilid in the~~
 Sgt. Co B. 192 Tk. Gr.

White at Bilid in the Spentary Tank recuperating from overwork on a temporary work detail, Jim was lying in the sun when a Nip guard came up and started to talk with him. In the course of conversation the Nip said something about killing Jim. Jim said "Go ahead" so the Nip fired at Jim hitting him in the neck severing the spinal column paralyzing him from the arms down. Voice organs were paralyzed also. Lived about one week and died in September of 1944.
