Memo For Record

1. This project was initiated in an attempt to verify the authenticity of par 10 through 13, Special Orders Number 45, 32d Station Hospital, Philippine Army, 29 June 1946.

2. A spot check of some of the 201 files of individuals appearing on the order in question reveals their allegations regarding rank, organization and date of discharge are compatible with the information shown on SO #45.

3. The signature of Dominador P. Alabastro is hardly legible but is determined to be the same as that found in his 201 file.

4. SO #45 was compared with other orders on file for the 32d Station Hospital in regards to designation, numerical and date sequence, command line and adjutant and found to be compatible in every respect.

5. Since the information shown on SO #45 appears to be compatible with par 10 through 13, Special Orders Number 45, 32d Station Hospital, Philippine Army, 29 June 1946 ^{that it} be accepted as authentic. It is further recommended that cards be made for the names of individuals appearing thereon and placed in the Master Card File and a photo copy of SO #45 filed under decimal 300.4, folder 72 in PA post liberation archives.
