1. This project initiated to verify the authenticity of Par 2, Special Orders #3, Hqs, Leyte Provisional Regiment, USAFFE, 3 January 1942, submitted in the case of Serafin S. De Los Reyes.

2. The above special order contains the names and regimental assignments of 68 Philippine Army Personnel. Available 201 files of the individuals appearing on that order were examined and the following information was obtained:

a. 201 files:

64 located.

4 not located.

b. Certified to VA:

23 positive

4 negative (service verified for one individual based on POW adjudication, subsequent to reply to VA stating USAFFE not established).

37 no certification (24 have sufficient evidence to establish service).

c. Alleged organization - there are slight variations in company assignment, however, all 64 individuals allege service with Leyte Provisional Regiment.

d. Duty assignment and rank were found to be generally compatible for all individuals involved.

e. Identical copy of Par 2, Special Orders #3, has been found in the 201 file for Francisco B. Socrates. 201 file for Avelino P. Potian contains an alleged true copy of same order.

3. The signature of Robert A. Tabberrah, 1st Lt, Regimental Adjutant, appearing on order in question compares favorably with signature in 201 file for Robert A. Tabberrah, Capt, O-33818.

4. A comparison of this extract of Special Orders #3 with extracts of Special Orders #12 and #74 dated 14 January 1942 and 4 April 1942 respectively, and currently on file for Leyte Provisional Regiment, indicates same format as shown on Special Orders #3. Further, Special Orders #3, showing 3d Lt. P. P. Albao designated as
