

319.1

REPORT.
HJ Co, 6" Inf. Div.

DECLASSIFIED
Authority ANN 883078

319.1

REPORT.

HJ Co, 6" Inf. Div.

DECLASSIFIED

Authority NNJ 883078

DECLASSIFIED
Authority NSA 883078

DECLASSIFIED
Authority NNI 883678

File

HEADQUARTERS 6TH INFANTRY DIVISION PA
Office of the Hq Company
APO 159

19 March 1946

SUBJECT: Accident, report of.

To : CO, Sp Trs, 6th Inf Div PA

1. At about 1500 18 March 1946, a verbal report was received by Capt Rafael Genobiagon, CO Hq Co, 6th Inf Div PA from Sgt Lucio Puyot, Hq Co that Jeep No 20424734 driven by Pfc Vicente Baggican turned turtle on Dumlagu-Plan Road about 3-1/2 kilometers from Alas Crossing. Capt Rafael Genobiagon with Major H. L. Buhay, two medical officers, Lt Egles and several MP enlisted men went to the scene of the accident for investigation and the following were found.

(a) That Pfc Vicente Baggican and Pvt Fornea Cruz both of the Hq Co, 6th Inf Div PA at about 1000 18 March 1946 took the above-mentioned car for the purposes of gathering pineapples. That said Pfc Vicente Baggican drove the car without the authority of the MTO nor from his Commanding Officer, Capt Rafael Genobiagon. He made trip to that area without any trip ticket. That while passing the barrio behind the area occupied by the Hq Co they took with them Emiliana Bacariza, common-law-wife of Spt Francisco Dismaldo and one Eusebia Nagueta. That returning to station at about 1430 Pfc Baggican in spite of rough road drove the jeep recklessly and made over 30 MPH speed causing the car to zigzag out of control. Then the car turned turtle head facing toward the rear.

while driving

(b) Emiliana Bacariza suffered skull fracture and several contusions on her body which caused her sudden death; Pvt Vicente Baggican, the driver suffered slight bruise on right eye; Eusebia Nagueta suffered shock; and Pvt Fornea Cruz also suffered slight bruised left arm and left leg.

(c) The jeep sustained the following damages: Right and left fender smashed; hood dented; left side light broken; windshield broken; radiator leaking; Tie rod connections (left) bent; right headlight broken.

2. In view of the foregoing, this office concludes that Pfc Vicente Baggican is guilty of offense falling under 96 AF under two counts while Pvt Fornea Cruz is likewise guilty under 96th AF on one count. Charges are being preferred against them.

3. Enclosed is Driver's Report-Accident (Standard Form No. 26) duly accomplished.

319-1
REPORT
Hq Co, 6th Inf. Div.

File

HEADQUARTERS 6TH INFANTRY DIVISION PA
Office of the Hq Company
APO 159

19 March 1946

SUBJECT: Accident, report of.

To : CO, Sp Tro, 6th Inf Div PA

1. At about 1500 18 March 1946, a verbal report was received by Capt Rafael Genobiagon, CO Hq Co, 6th Inf Div PA from Sgt Lucio Payot, Hq Co that Jeep No 20424734 driven by Pfc Vicente Baggican turned turtle on Dumilag-Alas Road about 3-1/2 kilometers from Alas Crossing. Capt Rafael Genobiagon with Major E. L. Buhay, two medical officers, Lt Egles and several MP enlisted men went to the scene of the accident for investigation and the following were found.

(a) That Pfc Vicente Baggican and Pvt Fornea Cruz both of the Hq Co, 6th Inf Div PA at about 1000 18 March 1946 took the above-mentioned car for the purposes of gathering pineapples. That said Pfc Vicente Baggican drove the car without the authority of the NPO nor from his Commanding Officer, Capt Rafael Genobiagon. He made trip to that area without any trip ticket. That while passing the barrio behind the area occupied by the Hq Co they took with them Emilliana Bacariza, common-law-wife of Spt Francisco Dismaldo and one Eusebia Nagueta. That returning to station at about 1430 Pfc Baggican in spite of rough road drove the jeep recklessly and made over 30 MPH speed causing the car to zigzag out of control. Then the car turned turtle head facing toward the rear.

while driving

(b) Emilliana Bacariza suffered skull fracture and several contusions on her body which caused her sudden death; Pvt Vicente Baggican, the driver suffered slight bruise on right eye; Eusebia Nagueta suffered shock; and Pvt Fornea Cruz also suffered slight bruised left arm and left leg.

(c) The jeep sustained the following damages: Right and left fender smashed; hood dented; left side light broken; windshield broken; radiator leaking; Tie rod connections (left) bent; right headlight broken.

2. In view of the foregoing, this office concludes that Pfc Vicente Baggican is guilty of offense falling under 96 AW under two counts while Pvt Fornea Cruz is likewise guilty under 97th AW on one count. Charges are being preferred against them.

3. Enclosed is Driver's Report-Accident (Standard Form No. 26) duly accomplished.

319-1
REPORT
Hq Co, 6th Inf. Div.

DECLASSIFIED

Authority ANN 883078

BRIEF- Monthly Accident Summary (Initial)

1st Indorsement
HEADQUARTERS COMPANY 6TH INF DIV PA 9 March 1946
To: CO, Sp Trs, 6th Inf Div PA

Forwarded for information. This is the initial report of this unit.

Rafael Senobriagon
RAFAEL SENOBRIAGON,
Captain, Infantry,
Commanding.

319.1
REPORT
HQ Co, 6th Inf. Div.

DECLASSIFIED

Authority ANN 883078

BRIEF- Monthly Accident Summary (Initial)

1st Indorsement
HEADQUARTERS COMPANY 6TH INF DIV PA 9 March 1946
To: CO, Sp Trs, 6th Inf Div PA

Forwarded for information. This is the initial report of this unit.

Rafael Genoblagon
RAFAEL GENOBLAGON,
Captain, Infantry,
Commanding.

319.1
REPORT:
HQ CO, 6th Inf. Div.

DECLASSIFIED
Authority ANN 883078

319.1
REPORT
HS Co, 6th Flg. Div.

DECLASSIFIED
Authority NND 883078

319.1
REPORT
MS Co. 6" Inf. Div.

DECLASSIFIED
Authority ND 883678

DECLASSIFIED
Authority NND 883678