PHILIPPINE VETERANS LEAGUE

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

WHEREAS, the Filipino nation has learned from the United States of America the value and wisdom of the principles governing the democratic way of life;

WHEREAS, the Filipino nation took part in a total war, at a high cost of life and property, to uphold, maintain, and perpetuate such principles necessary in her existence as a liberty-loving country; and

WHEREAS, the Filipino Veterans of World War II desire the perpetuation in this land of such principles for which they shed their blood and lost their lives;

THEREFORE, be it declared as they do hereby declare in a convention assembled, the following principles:

- (1) That the Filipino Veterans of World War II, severally and collectively, subscribe without moral compulsion nor mental reservation to the principles governing the democratic way of life;
- (2) That the Filipino Veterans of World War II, severally and collectively, freely band together socially and professionally, to strive to promote their welfare in accordance with those same principles of the democratic way of life;
- (3) That they aim to look after the individual and collective security and welfare of all veterans, disabled ex-servicemen, widows, orphans, and dependents of soldiers killed, wounded, or disabled in this war;

(4) That they aim to continue to support the principles of the democratic way of life.
