lies between the duodenum and the pyloric portion of the stomach. Locate carefully the duct which empties into the duodenum.

b. Liver is a dark-reddish organ. How many lobes of liver do you find? Locate carefully the bile duct that enters the small intestine. Where is the gall-bladder found? Name the uses of the liver.

Make a full-page drawing of the digestive apparatus.

Include in your drawing the various openings of the different structures that enter the duodenum and the cloaca.
